ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTQI community members that you think other GLBTQI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, new jobs, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

Announcement #1 (Rockland):

Maine Community Foundation Awards Grant to Out!...As I Want To Be

The Equity Fund of MCF recently awarded $7500 to Out!...As I Want To Be to hire a part time staffer to establish collaborative relationships with other youth oriented organizations and the community, and to launch a significant fundraising effort for the future. Dora Lievow was hired in February.

Out!...As I Want To Be has been serving young people on an all-volunteer basis for fifteen years. Known as Outright for its first ten years, Out! is a resource for Gay, Lesbian, Bi-sexual, Transgender, Queer and Questioning (GLBTQ) youth aged 14 – 22 and their parents and allies. From the website: “Our programs and activities are driven by the needs, ideas, and energy of youth, who participate fully in decision-making at every level. At our weekly meetings; make new friends, see old friends, talk, laugh, play games, see movies, learn about GLBTQ life, discuss serious and not-so-serious issues.” The group also has a myspace page.

Coordinator Lis Clark and a rotating group of advisors provide a safe space two evenings a week (Wednesdays, 5 – 8pm, Fridays, from 6 – 9 pm) at Out’s cozy office upstairs at 501 Main Street. Together, young people and an advisor prepare a meal served family style around a large table. Conversation and support is informal and comes as much from other young people, who are often isolated during their days at Rockland, Belfast, Mt. View, Camden, Medomak Valley, or George’s Valley high schools.

Lievow, in her former role as founder and director of The Community School’s residential program in Camden, has been familiar with the needs and strengths of GLBTQ teens. “My affinity with Out!’s mission is strong. And what could be more gratifying than to apply the skills I gleaned at The Community School to another critical resource for young people. Not only can I draw on our success in the organizational development of the School, but I can recall our mistakes and lessons learned!”

Lievow will be setting up meetings with the staff of non-profits and will be working with GLBTQ young people to offer presentations to service groups, churches, and high schools. To contact Lievow through Out, go to the website at www.outmaine.org.

Announcement #2 (Portland) (Job Listing):

EqualityMaine, the statewide lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) advocacy organization, seeks a full-time Development Director. Announcement #3:

Call for submissions: Have you experienced violence and identify on the queer/trans spectrum? Do you have a piece of writing or artwork about it? Please share it! Transrelating, a 'zine "on sex, gender, relationships and the rest of us" is accepting submissions for its next issue. Violence: behavior intending to hurt. Many in the trans/queer communities share the far too common experience of violence directed toward their gender identity and/or sexual orientation- bullied at school by classmates, hurt at home by family, hurt by lovers/partners, hurt by strangers, hurt by a homophobic/transphobic/body-negative/sex-negative culture, hurt by ourselves. This issue of Transrelating seeks to share some of the common experiences as well as how we can redirect this trend and change a community/culture. All pieces of writing and artwork are welcome (academic essays, rants, poems, stories, pictures, paintings, drawings, etc). Email submissions to: Transrelating@gmail.com Submissions should be sent by June 1st, 2010.

Announcement #4 (Portland):

Dear Friends,

We need your help. I know how much all of you love the North Star Cafe. It has been an amazing three years getting to know all of you and hearing your stories. You often ask "How's business?" and I usually reply with "Good, ya know, staying busy."

I want you to feel confident in this space that you've come to trust. Small businesses are always tight on money and the North Star is no exception. Neighborhood spots can easily come and go without asking for help from those who love and support them.

So, I am asking. We are staying busy, but we need your help. I need to raise $6,000 to keep the Cafe's doors open. I know these are difficult times for everyone. No one has large chunks of money lying around, but $6,000 divided amongst friends makes it possible for everyone to help.

Our email list has 1400 names on it. If each person on the list gives $5, our $6,000 goal will be met. We understand that not everyone has an extra $5 and that some have $100 to give. We appreciate anything you can give. Something as small as stopping in for a coffee on your way to work will help us reach our goal. So, please, help us to continue being the community center you have come to expect in your life.

Please donate today. You can click on this link (<http://bit.ly/c0f0ya>) to donate through Paypal or stop into the Cafe. I will be happy to talk to anyone and answer any questions you might have. Keep an eye out for more information about where we are headed and how you can be a part of it.

Humbly,
Kim Anderson

OP/EDs:

This is your chance to spout off (or offer your insightful thoughts and opinions) about ANYTHING related to the GLBTQI community. Any subscriber is welcomed to submit. Please keep your thoughts as succinct (and civilized) as possible. Subscribers should be willing to allow at least their first name and an email address to be listed with the posting.

Opinion #1:

An open letter to the GLBTQIA community:

The community is all of us – no matter what letter of the alphabet or what box we choose or are put into by everyone else. Last November, the community suffered a ballot defeat on one issue that seemed to be one that caused disagreement both within the community and outside it. That defeat was at the hands of voters, primarily in rural Maine communities, most of whom seemed to vote the way they did because they do not know (or do not think that they know) any members of our community. The vote was about “those people.” The result of the vote was due to ignorance. The issue at stake for the entire community is not really same-sex marriage – the vote on Question One in November was a symptom of our problem, not the cause. The issue is the right of the entire community to live a life free from interference by others’ ignorance. That ignorance will continue to arise again and again in battles against our fundamental civil rights unless we are able to do something to combat it. There are some things that we can do. One of those things is to get to know those people who think that they do not know any of us. Another is to work together to help each other, not in competition against each other.

Maine used to have a program in which members of our community talked to others about our experiences of discrimination and life to others who may not have ever met someone like us. With that program our individual stories were told and heard. People who thought they did not know someone from our community realized we are all around them. Today, that program is no longer in existence – except for youth speaking to other youth in a school setting – because the (non-GLBTQIA owned or operated) corporation that had acquired it lost the grant that operated it and declined to fund it out of their own budget. As long as our stories are not being told, ignorance will continue. We need to talk to our neighbors. We need to take up the work that had been done by this program. We need to continue to reach out, speak out, and help other Maine citizens and voters who are not part of our community learn our stories and faces. As we tell our stories and make connections other Mainers may begin to realize that we are just like them and just want to be treated equally and respected, as all humans ought to be.

The second thing that we can do – and need to do – is to cooperate with one another. We need to create an environment of cooperation, rather than one of competition. That means that organizations need to stop purposely excluding others from events. They need to stop protecting information and worrying about territory. We need to learn to work together in order to accomplish our common goals. We need to emphasize our community, not fundraising. Cooperation means not only working together, but also listening to one another. This means that organizations need to learn from the experience of all – not simply issue directives from one part of the state while minimizing the experiences of others. Organizations that purport to represent all of us need to listen to other organizations – and to individuals – before making decisions that affect all of us, statewide. As long as we fail to cooperate, we will be a fractured community. If we are fractured, it is easy for those against us to target one or two of the “letters” in our community. We all need to work together to keep this from happening. If we do not, we are all going to lose more than the right to marry. We are going to lose our right to be.

Opinion #2:

In response to Rena Chevalier's op/ed as of March 1, I have several points to make to the GLBT "community" in ME. The first point is to congratulate RC for writing any op/ed; in my two years here, I have only read two op/eds to FAN, both when Jean Vermette was resigning.

1) I belong to Equality ME and have done quite a bit of work for them. And given a lot of money. I wouldn't do it again. Marriage will finally work out in the USA (it has in Europe and Canada for years). But Equality ME is a big business which uses very young kids who waste a lot of money and, well-meaning though they probably are, don't know what they're doing.

2) To Rene Chevalier I say most people who worked on "no on 1" did it to lower their own taxes and not out of any altruism. I honestly don't think they care about any movement as a whole.

3) Whether the ME "community" gets the marriage vote or not, I will definitely say that I think the GLBT community in ME is very fearful, insulated and divisive. That will work against the community in the long run. It's a sad and nonproductive way to lead life (unless you want to lead a very limited life behind a tiny church, behind a tiny group of friends who will take care of your cat?)

APRIL

APR 6 (Tuesday). Northport. The Fifth Annual University of Maine Geriatric Colloquium: Sexuality and Aging: Dispelling the Myths. Held at Point Lookout Resort and Conference Center. Special attention will be directed at the anticipated impact of having a generation of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) baby boomers using a wide range of health and social services including both community and institution-based forms of care in the coming years. Because sexual orientation and gender identity are now included in the Maine Human Rights law, all public institutions need to be proactive in planning for the issues that may arise with regard to staff, clients, and residents. Please see the following link for more information and for a link for a PDF brochure with more info: <http://www.umaine.edu/mainecenteronaging/>

APR 7 (Wednesday) Portland. Lecture: Aging in the next Decade: Issues of Ageism and LGBT Elders. University of New England. Noon. Westbrook College of Health Professions Lecture Hall, University of New England Portland Campus. Peg Cruikshank, women’s studies lecturer and author, will discuss current issues in aging and ageism, with particular focus on issues faced by LGBT elders. Cruikshank is the author of The Gay and Lesbian Liberation Movement, (1992) and an interdisciplinary book Learning to be Old: Gender Culture and Aging (2nd edition 2009). She has been teaching LGBT courses at various schools on the East and West Coasts since 1982. Part of UNE's Diversity Lecture Series. For more information, please contact Donna Gaspar at dgaspar@une.edu or at (207) 602-2461.

APR 7-8 (Wednesday/Thursday). Biddeford. Play: The Laramie Project. University of New England. 8:00 P.M. This student theatrical performance sponsored by UNE's Gay/Straight Alliance. The Laramie Project is a play by Moisés Kaufman and members of the Tectonic Theater Project about the reaction to the 1998 murder of University of Wyoming gay student Matthew Shepard in Laramie, Wyoming. The murder is widely considered to be a hate crime motivated by homophobia. The play, based more than 200 interviews conducted with people of the town, chronicles the life of the town of Laramie in the year after the murder. The Laramie Project is one of the most performed plays in the U.S. today. Free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Donna Gaspar at dgaspar@une.edu or at (207) 602-2461.

APR 9-11 (Friday through Sunday) Machias. Third Annual Rainbow Ball Weekend, at the The University of Maine at Machias. The 100% Society would like to invite the community to the The Rainbow Ball which is, as always, an open and affirming chem-free Prom evening that includes dancing, DJ, entertainers, pictures, food and friends. This year's Rainbow Ball on Saturday April 10th from 7-11pm will have a Back to the 50's theme! We also have an entire weekend of free events planned for youth. All associated High School, College, Youth groups, and community members (including groups that are allies) are invited to a casual, fun, safe, supervised, friendly and community celebration including a campus admissions preview during the day on Saturday. Our campus is located an hour north of Bar Harbor, ME. We can provide contact information for past chaperones if there are questions and concerns. Rainbow Ball prom tickets for college students and community members cost $15/person and $20/couple (all ticket sales go to support next year's ball)! Admission for high school students, youth groups and their chaperones is FREE. This includes room fees (Friday/Saturday), prom tickets and all meals. If your group needs housing accommodations, please RSVP any interest in this event by Monday March 8, 2010 as we have limited free housing for high school/youth groups. We will also provide assistance with transportation to the Rainbow Ball itself (gas money or ride coordination). To RSVP or to find out more information, please contact Betty Kelley, UMM Assistant to our President, with "Rainbow Ball" in the subject line to: <mailto:bkelly@maine.edu> or call between 1:00 and 5:00 pm, Monday - Friday at 255-1211. Visit our 100% Society page on Facebook. For more information, please see our campus webpage about this and other weekend events: <http://www.umm.maine.edu/100percent.html>

APR 22 – 25 (Thursday through Sunday). Lincolnton. The Make Beautiful Tribe Spring Retreat. The Make Beautiful Tribe welcomes all gay, bi, and transgendered men to its Spring Retreat at the Tanglewood 4-H Camp in Lincolnton from April 22-25. Get away from the rat-race and relax in the company of friendly Gay men for a weekend of sharing, spirituality, raucous fun, workshops, dancing, and absolutely incredible food, with our own Behr Garrecht serving as the Kitchen Queen and a visit from our own Queen Ivola! For more information and to register, visit the MBT website at: <http://www.makebeautifultribe.org> and click on 2010 Spring Retreat.

GLBTQI COMMUNITY SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS:

Bridge Alliance is a registered non profit organization connecting the gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and allied (GLBTA) community in Aroostook, Hancock, Washington, Piscataquis, and Penobscot counties. Our primary goal is to accomplish the following: facilitate the development of a GLBTA community which promotes and embraces diversity; to promote and encourage the understanding that the GLBTA community plays an important role in Maine's cultural, social and economic landscape; to give back to the GLBTA community through charitable donations or in-kind services; to produce annual events that will assemble the GLBTA community in Northern Maine. We look forward to having you as a partner in our many endeavors. The web site for the Bridge Alliance is www.thebridgealliance.org. The email address is info@thebridgealliance.org. The events calendar is at www.thebridgealliance.org/events.html

Bridging The Gap provides no-cost clinical breast exams, mammograms, breast ultrasounds, and other breast health services to women (including lesbian, bi, and trans women) age 20 to 29 who have a symptom of concern and age 30 to 39 who have a symptom of concern or a family history of breast cancer. FMI and to see if you qualify contact Robin at Bridging The Gap at 941-2808.

Caring Connections provides no-cost mammograms and Pap tests to women (including lesbian, bi, and trans women) age 40 to 64 who meet income guidelines and don't have insurance to cover breast and cervical health services. FMI contact Robin at Caring Connections at 941-2808.

Connections! Gay or Bisexual male in Maine? On your own and not getting any younger? Want to be connected by phone with other mature gay men in Maine? Network for conversation, companionship, connections for support, help in recovery from medical treatment, ice storms or accidents. Call or be called or both. If you know of anyone who may not see this message, for the sake of community pass this information on. Even slight connections among people raise our spirits. To find out more call Peter (in confidence) at 207-348-2212 between 9AM and 8PM.

(GLSEN) Gay, Lesbian & Straight Education Network. Meets fourth Thursday of each month at 6:00 PM at the UU Church in Ellsworth. We eat together (usually pizza) and ask participants to pitch in for the cost (usually about $5). New members always welcome. Our work is focused on making schools safer and more respectful for all students and staff regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity. We do staff trainings, workshops at other events, and advocate for student needs. Recently we have begun to work with and encourage several gay-straight alliances (GSA's) in local high schools. We are teachers, parents, school administrators, counselors, and other interested citizens; men and women, gay and straight, working together. FMI contact the Downeast Maine Chapter at PO Box 373, Ellsworth, ME 04605. OR phone 667-2358 or 244-3837. OR email downeastglsen@roadrunner.com. The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Collection at the University of Southern Maine is working to capture the history of Maine's LGBT community. We collect papers of individuals and the records of organizations active in the community. Although we mostly collect print material (books, serials, written documents) we collect almost any object that documents the life and experience of the LGBT community (photographs, books, newsletters, objects, posters, T-shirts, buttons, etc). Following professional standards, we are careful to guard the privacy of individuals involved with the collections and will work with donors who choose anonymity. For information on the collection and donating material please contact Susie Bock, 207-780-4269 or books@usm.maine.edu.

Lesbian Health Project. Initiated in 1992, the Lesbian Health Project of the Mabel Wadsworth Women's Health Center seeks to promote non-homophobic health services which will provide lesbians with the ability to make the best health decisions possible based on accurate knowledge. The focus of the project is on developing educational materials for lesbians and trainings for health and social service professionals. In addition, the project sponsors a Lesbian Health Clinic at the Mabel Wadsworth Women's Health Center which provides low-cost, woman positive, lesbian-centered health care including: pelvic exams, breast exams, health education, instruction in breast self-exam, pap smears, mammography referrals, health advocacy, screening and treatment of STD's. For more information or to become involved in the work of the project contact the Mabel Wadsworth Women's Health Center at 947-5337

The Naughty North Collective is a state wide radical queer direct action (dis)organization. We are committed to celebrating our queerest selves while resisting the devastating violence inherent in the consumer driven assimilationist gaystream. We will defend ourselves against the brutal silence of isolation thru a diverse and dedicated network of action oriented friends and lovers. We will not deny our anger or fail to recognize the links between queer struggle and challenging power. Naughty North is a defiant orgasm in the face of oppression: all are welcome to get off with us! <http://www.thenaughtynorth.blogspot.com>

Trans Care Collaborative. Mission: To improve the medical and mental health care available to the transgender and gender-diverse population in Maine. The Transgender Fund. With offices in Freeport, Maine, The Transgender Fund is a national, completely independent, 501(c)(3) tax-exempt public charitable foundation. It has been created by and for transgendered individuals. Our funding is derived from contributions by caring individuals of all levels of means. Our strength and independence come from the fact that there is no single benefactor who has seeded the Fund with a large amount of capital. Contributions you make are added to those of your sisters and brothers. Individually, they may seem modest, but collectively they add up to a powerful force that is reinvested in the support of projects fostering the well-being of all our gender variant minorities. FMI email info@tgfund.org OR check the web site at www.tgfund.org

Trans Youth Equality Foundation. A new foundation established to support transgender and transsexual youth (ages 2-22). Gay Maine. www.gaymaine.com. The lesbian and gay directory for gay-owned and gay-friendly places in Maine: Bars, clubs, hotels, guesthouses, restaurants, and more!

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :) So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups--the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____ " Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

It covers the State of Maine. The list was graciously begun and maintained for many years by Jean Vermette in Bangor. It is now operated by Zack Paakkonen of Portland.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTQI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBTQ and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTQI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTQI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTQI-friendly," then do it!

ARE THERE ANY DEADLINES FOR POSTING?

If you want to be sure that your posting will make it into the next issue, please send it to thefan@maine.rr.com no later than four days prior to when the next issue comes out (in other words – three days before either the 1st or the 15th of the month). Although I can try to get a last-minute post into the next issue if you mail it later than my deadline, I can't guarantee it will make it.

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: thefan@maine.rr.com

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTQI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need.
