It is a lovely morning and Emmie and I are waiting for the breakfast bell.

Then it goes. Tell papa
to take the autohairs to Cressey, Jones and Allen when he gets ready
to have it fixed,

It is such a lovely day I think
I shall take some pictures.

I have some work to do so
I must close with love
Harriet.

Dear Mamma:-

It has been a stormy day to-day and quite cold! Wasnt yesterday an awful hot day?

The new piano came this morning and it has been placed in the green room.
We are not allowed to use it when we have a mind to but we can use it from 5 P.M. to 7 P.M., Rather a short time I think but we shall have to give and hear it.

Preparations are now being made for the reception which is to be next Saturday night.

The girls that have been here before say that they do not have a good time at all because everything is so formal.

They had a grand time here last Friday afternoon but there were not quite five hundred people here. I guess two hundred would come nearer.

Will you please save that account that was in the Press.

The girls told me that ^{our} every¹¹ thought that our room was a very pretty one.

Yesterday it was very hot in our rooms so some of us girls went out onto the portico over the main entrance and we found it was lovely and cool there. During study hours I thought I should roast our lamps heats the room up terribly and it was an awful hot night any way.

I must study for a while now and finish this letter some other time.
