Human Rights Week

Events sponsored and held at the Swedenborgian Community Church
302 Stevens Avenue
Portland, Maine 04103
772-8277

On December 10th, 1948, the member states of the United States signed the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. For the first time, countries of widely differing political, economic, and social systems agreed on a standard of basic rights.

Since that time, December 10th has been kept as Human Rights Day, and, more recently, the week in which it falls has been designated as Human Rights Week by demonimations around the world.

ON THE 35th ANNIVERSARY OF THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION WE INVITE PERSONS OF GOOD WILL TO PARTICIPATE IN OBSERVANCE OF THIS IMPORTANT EVENT.

the tree is bare theres nothing on it
but a crop of dusty leaves
dirty rags on broken
branches
where the children swing
plum season
and theres not a plum
well maybe one way up and out of reach somewhere
if i could see it
lost
inside the tangled green
theres got to be one plum
one round smooth purple plum
at least
before the frost
theres got to be just one

Lovers' Quarrel #7

Whaddaya mean, I shouldn't be jealous because your love for her has nothing to do with your love for me?
That's why I'm jealous.

Lovers' Quarrel #8

Is it the same thing I'm always harping on or different things each time?
Either way you'll get me.

Lovers' Quarrel #11

It's not fair.
Not only doesn't it ever occur t' you t' go buy me
a present
But those few times it does
I hafta feel guilty
Thinking I must've hinted around.

the Common Scold

Under English Common law, "common scold" was a criminal charge levied against "women addicted to abusive speech." Men could not be so charged. We name this newsletter "The Common Scold" to honor all of herstory's scolds. We honor the women who dared to speak their minds, the women who dared assert themselves, the women tried and convicted by all-male juries. Let us all be guilty of the charge "common scold."

Editorial Policy

The Common Scold is published monthly by the Newsletter Task Force of the Collective. Our purpose is to provide women with a forum for our feminist voices. We will only print material by women, and will consider for publication any material not deemed racist, sexist, classist, hetero-sexist, ablebodiist or ageist. We reserve the right to edit material on matters of length and content. No revisions or rejections will occur without dialogue with the author. The viewpoints expressed are not necessarily those of the Newsletter Task Force.

Submission Guidelines

We encourage women to submit articles, graphics, poetry, cartoons, reviews and announcements. We appreciate typewritten submissions, though handwritten submissions are also welcome. Deadline for submissions is the 10th of each month. All submissions must include the author's name, address, and phone number (if available) should we need to contact the author. Within the pages of the Newsletter, names will be omitted upon request. Please enclose SASE if you would like your work returned to you.

Copyright

No article or graphic may be reproduced in whole or in part without the permission of the Newsletter Task Force and the author/artist.

Advertising

Cost of advertising is $5 per issue. Submissions and advertisements should be sent to: The Collective, c/o Elze, 372 Preble St., South Portland, 04106.

RECREATING MEANINGFUL RITUALS

George Barn

With Edith Sullwold

HOLIDAYS TEND TO BE A DIFFICULT TIME FOR MANY OF US BECAUSE EXPECTATIONS RUN HIGH AND ALL TOO FREQUENTLY OUR CELEBRATIONS LEAVE US FEELING UNFULFILLED. COME EXPLORE WITH US THE ARCHETYPAL NATURE OF RITUALS AND THE WAYS WE CAN RECREATE THESE RITUAL FORMS FOR OURSELVES, OUR FAMILIES AND OUR COMMUNITIES.

Turning toward the holidays of Hannukah, Christmas and the New Year, we can ask ourselves about the meaning of the rituals in which we participate each year. Many rituals have ceased to be fulfilling because they are practiced with little connection to their original intentions, and because they have lost the enthusiasm and freshness present in their creation.

However, since the formation of ritual appears to be a natural function of the human psyche, we can ourselves bring rituals into our lives which are meaningful to our time and to our individual inclinations. Through our participation in their creation we can renew the forms which have traditionally focused the energies of a group or an individual toward the celebration of life changes, whether they be natural seasons, or seasons of our individual lives.

The workshop will focus on the archetypal nature of rituals, particularly those of the winter seasons, and on the ways we can recreate these ritual forms for ourselves, for our families, & for our communities.

EDITH SULLWOLD, M.A., MFCC, had a private practice for children and adults in Los Angeles for 20 years. She is the founding Director of the Hilde Kirsch Children's Center of the C. G. Jung Institute in Los Angeles, and Director of Turning Point, a professional group working with children with serious illness. She teaches at Universities and Institutes throughout the world, and is now living in Massachusetts, where she is a faculty member of the Mary Starks Whitehouse Institute for dancers, choreographers and dance therapists. She has recently finished a film about children called, Circling.
