NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

News #1: The Bangor Pride information listed in the May 15 issue of the FAN was incorrect. The correct date is June 26, 2010. Information from the Pride contact person follows:

The PRIDE Festival is Saturday, June 26th, 1 - 10 PM. The location is Westmarket Square in downtown Bangor. 1-6PM - Live music from local bands on the stage performing. Sam & Yuri, and Jessi Mallory, local favorites, will be among those entertaining us. A few speakers will be taking the platform to keep us abreast of recent events in our community, including an update from Equality Maine. There will be information booths representing GLBTA organizations in our area. Talk to the folks at the tables to find out what resources are on offer. There will be small activities for children during the day. Food and drink are available on the square. We will sorely miss Chris Geagan & the Whig this year (THANK YOU Chris and staff), but the other restaurants on the square will be open and are very supportive. Soda and water will be available from the Bridge Alliance kiosk at a minimal price. Our dances used to be upstairs at Paddy Murphy's until we outgrew the space. John & the crew there have always been big supporters, even when we used to shake the chandeliers during 'YMCA'! PRIDE shows the local businesses how important our dollars are to them, and they have all been supportive.

The Bridge Alliance GLBT ART SHOW will be in the Charlotte Inn all day, free to the public. A discount for rooms is available to all PRIDE participants if you want to stay on the doorstep of the festivities. Let her know when you book your room. It gives you a shower, space to change clothes, a bed, and a very short distance to travel (5 steps & an elevator) if you have a few drinks while celebrating. Again, the proprietor has been very supportive in allowing us free space to display the work of local PRIDE artisans.

7-10PM - The PRIDE dance. In the middle of the square, free to the public. We will be kicking it to the music of DJ Jessi Mallory. I look forward to the gang celebrating under the stars... there is a lot of joy in being free to be out, proud, and looking forward to progressive changes in our nation. We will be just a part of PRIDE celebrations taking place around the world. In several countries, the GLBT community is still struggling to be public. In Malawi Africa a young gay couple were sentenced to 14 years hard labor for holding an engagement party. They have said they will face death rather than denying their relationship. The government of Uganda Africa is seeking the death penalty for activities of a homosexual nature. In Moscow Russia PRIDE will be illegal again this year. The community will still march and be arrested in the square honoring Walt Whitman. In Eastern Europe it is now legal to hold PRIDE festivals, but they are outnumbered 2 to 1 by protesters who throw missiles at them, shouting and screaming insults. They will still carry PRIDE flags and proudly march.

So I'll be celebrating and dancing. I'll lift my arms up & be public for every GLBT person around the world who can't. This is the 40th anniversary of the first PRIDE celebrations, the year following Stonewall. Everything didn't happen immediately following the protests at Stonewall. We still have a long way to go. We don't have all our rights, the government is the largest legal discriminatory employer in the country with DADT, and our young people still take their lives in alarming numbers. Last year we had a large number of young people on the square. They were SO happy to discover they WERE NOT ALONE. Come to be entertained, and have a good time. But more importantly, come OUT to be seen, to show our presence to the Maine community, to show our young people they are not alone, to be part of a movement taking place all around the world. See you on Westmarket Square on the 26th.

Greg Music
Vice President of The Bridge Alliance

The funds raised will help replace those pulled by the Catholic Diocese due to Preble Street's support of the 2009 marriage equality campaign. "We hope that, by choosing to help Preble Street, we are sending a positive message of hope to those most in need and at the same time able to show our support of full equality for Maine's lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) citizens" said Kris Colford, organizer of Bike for Equality. The ride will kick-off at 8:00am on Wednesday, June 16 at the Charlie Howard Memorial in Bangor, with a spiritual service to remember the man whose murder in 1984 is widely considered the catalyst of the LGBT rights movement in Maine.

The 8 bicyclists, three (3) day ride will take Routes 202 – 139 from Bangor to Winslow on the first day. The second day will see them from Route 201 into Brunswick. Announcement #4: Study State Political Campaigns to Limit or Extend the Rights of Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Americans Principal Investigator: Nathan G. Smith, PhD, McGill University

LGB and straight ally researchers at McGill University are currently conducting a study to better understand the short- and long-term impacts of state political campaigns that aim to expand or limit the rights of LGBT individuals. The impetus for the current study is the events of this November's elections, when voters in Maine rejected a state law that would have allowed same-sex couples to wed and voters in Washington State approved an expansion of that state's domestic partner laws. The current study seeks to examine the impact of these types of voter referenda on LGBT individuals.

If you currently live in Maine or Washington state or you lived in Maine or Washington state during the November 2009 elections AND you identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, queer, and/or transgender, you are invited to participate in our study. The study consists of completing a series of questionnaires. It should take approximately 30-40 minutes to complete the survey. If you choose, you may be contacted again to complete a second survey. Participants may choose to be entered into a drawing for one of three Amazon.com gift certificates in the amount of $75.00 each. Participants who complete the follow-up survey may choose to be entered into a second drawing for one of three Amazon.com $75 gift certificates. If you are interested in participating, please go to: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/YFXS2KC>

If you have any questions or desire further information with respect to this study you may contact Dr. Nathan G. Smith, Department of Educational and Counselling Psychology, McGill University, 3700 McTavish Street, Montreal, QC, Canada H3A 1Y2. (514) 398-3454 or nathan.smith@mcgill.ca The current study has been endorsed by the Research Ethics Board of McGill University (REB #217-1209). The McGill Research Ethics Board may be contacted at Research Ethics Board Office, 11th floor, 1555 Peel Street, Montreal, QC, Canada H3A 3L8. (514) 398-6831

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :) So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups—the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet—you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____ " Any questions? let me know! THE WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER:

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" or "The FAN" in the subject line). Note that FAN issues often show up in your inbox from thefan@maine.rr.com due to technicalities of the internet.

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTQI (gay/lesbian/bisexual/trans/queer/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers the State of Maine. The list was graciously begun and maintained for many years by Jean Vermette in Bangor. It is now operated by Zack Paakkonen of Portland.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTQI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBTQ and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTQI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTQI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTQI-friendly," then do it!

ARE THERE ANY DEADLINES FOR POSTING?

If you want to be sure that your posting will make it into the next issue, please send it to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org no later than four days prior to when the next issue comes out (in other words – three days before either the 1st or the 15th of the month). Although I can try to get a last-minute post into the next issue if you mail it later than my deadline, I can't guarantee it will make it.

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTQI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify "queer" status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need. Please note also that FAN issues may show up in your inbox as coming from thefan@maine.rr.com instead of from zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org due to technicalities of the internet and the vagaries of your ISP and e-mail program. It's still the same FAN from the same sender.
