

An Invitation to
The Fine Arts Program
of Gorham State College
for 1966 - 1967

The 1966-67 Concert-Lecture Series -- Events in Performance

The Gorham State College Concert-Lecture Series engages annually leading speakers and performing artists for campus programs. In addition to those listed, other program dates will be announced.

All programs are at 8 o'clock in the evening in Russell Hall Auditorium. Seating is limited and the public admission is $1.00 for each program. Reservations may be made through the College Ticket Desk.

OCTOBER 26
JOHN CIARDI — Poetry editor of Saturday Review, English professor, television personality, lectures on "What Good is a College?"

FEBRUARY 8
FINE ARTS WOODWIND QUINTET — Five Boston woodwind artists, principals in the Cambridge Festival Orchestra, in concert.

In addition to the Concert-Lecture Series, a program of student performances is presented on the campus in Russell Hall auditorium at 8 o'clock in the evening. Seating is limited and the public admission is $1.00 for each performance. Reservations may be made through the College Ticket Desk.

NOVEMBER 16
DONALD GRAMM — Bass-Baritone, Metropolitan Opera, in concert with a varied repertoire.

MARCH 21
JAMES DICK — Twenty-four-year-old Leventritt Foundation pianist competition finalist, in concert of classical piano music.

1966 — 1967

- NOVEMBER 3, 4, 5 — College Theater Production
 - DECEMBER 11 — *Christmas Concert, College Band and Gorham Chorale
 - MARCH 16, 17, 18 — College Theater Production
 - APRIL 27, 28 — *Modern Dance Production
 - MAY 7 — Choral Concert
 - MAY 18 — Spring Concert, College-Community Orchestra, College Band, Brass Ensemble, A Cappella Choir
- *Open to the public without charge

DECEMBER 6
MARTIN AGRONSKY — Washington correspondent for CBS Radio-TV, winner of DuPont and Peabody Awards, lectures on "The U. S. in a Changing World."

MAY 3
DR. LEONARD REIFFEL — Deputy Director for Sciences of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Apollo Moon Program, lectures on "The Many Races in Space."

The Concert-Lecture Series

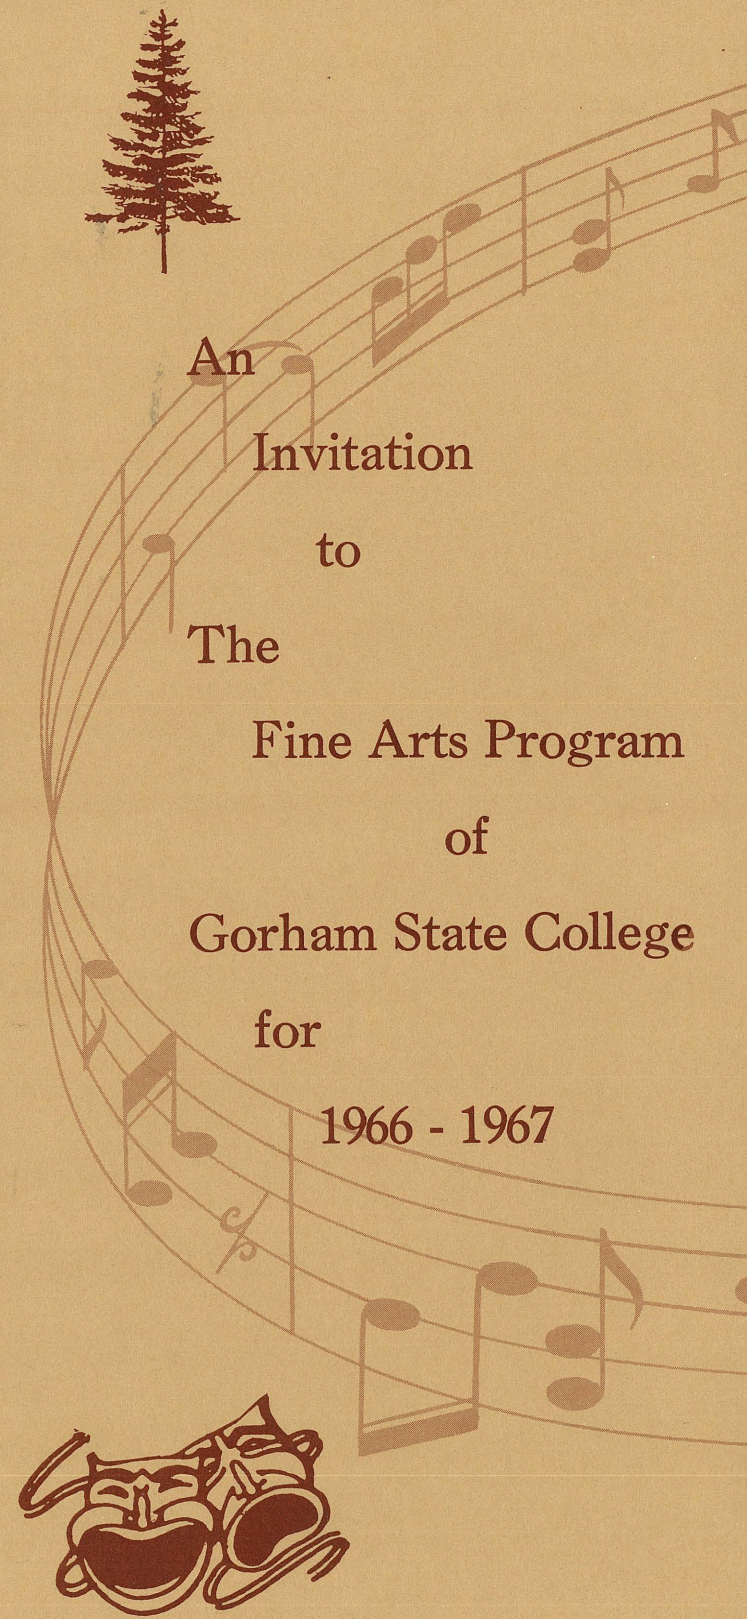

Interested persons and business firms are invited to become patrons of the Concert-Lecture Series, thus contributing to the cultural growth of the College and the community. Patrons receive tickets for all performances.

May we have your name? Information will be furnished.

Art Exhibitions

Periodic exhibitions of art work, both professional and student, may be seen in the Corthell Hall foyer and gallery.

Fine Arts Program
of
Gorham State College
for 1966 - 1967
Gorham, Maine 04038

Fine Arts Program

of

Gorham State College

for 1966 - 1967

Gorham, Maine 04038