Westbrook Junior College
Portland, Maine

September 18 - October 1, 1966

JEANA DALE BEARCE was born in St. Louis, Missouri, was graduated from Washington University School of Fine Arts in 1951 and received an M.A. degree in art education from New Mexico Highlands University in 1954. She is an artist-teacher whose work in both professions has received high recognition. Currently Mrs. Bearce is the instructor in art at the University of Maine in Portland. Like many artists, she has found Maine an appealing place in which to live and work. Her home is in Brunswick, Maine.

Mrs. Bearce has had over thirty solo exhibitions of her paintings, prints and drawings in museums, university art centers and galleries throughout the United States and abroad. These include four shows in India in 1962; a one-man show at the Gallery 65 in Paris, France, in 1964; a large solo show at Bristol (Rhode Island) Art Museum in 1965; and other exhibits in shows held in New York, Boston, St. Louis, at Bradenton in Florida, and at university centers in New Mexico. New Englanders, particularly in Maine and New Hampshire, have been privileged to see her work on numerous occasions, both at college art centers and in museums. In 1964 Mrs. Bearce was one of eight artists chosen to represent Maine at the Maine Artist's Day at the New York World's Fair, an exhibit sponsored by Women's Day Magazine and the Maine Department of Economic Development.

In addition to solo exhibits, Mrs. Bearce's work has been displayed in major shows, including the Library of Congress, Boston Museum of Fine Arts, St. Louis City Art Museum, Philadelphia Print Club, Springfield Museum, Birmingham Museum of Fine Arts, Little Rock Art Museum, DeCordova Museum, Farnsworth Museum, the Portland Museum of Art and others. Among the permanent collections which own her work are those of the St. Louis City Art Museum, the Sarasota Art Museum, the museums of Bowdoin College, Amherst College, the University of Maine, New Rochelle College for Women, New Mexico Highlands University, and the United States Educational Foundation in New Delhi, India.

Jeana Dale Bearce has received many notable art awards. These include the Putzel Purchase Prize of the St. Louis City Art Museum, two Fannie Cook Awards for future study in art, the Dr. Glynn Rivers Award, the Ball State Teachers College award, two Prix de Paris, and the $400 Purchase Prize of the Sarasota Art Association's Seventh National Exhibit.

Westbrook Junior College takes special pride in opening its series of art exhibits for the 1966-1967 academic year with a showing of the work of this gifted artist.
