NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

No news this issue.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTQI community members that you think other GLBTQI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

Announcement #1: Effective September 29, 2010, PRYSM (Proud Rainbow Youth of Southern Maine) has moved its drop-in night to Wednesday evenings instead of Tuesday.

Announcement #2: BIKE FOR EQUALITY 2011 is looking for people who want to become involved in our next big bicycle event. We will need many volunteers from Northern and Southern Maine as well as those interested in bicycling. We will be looking for volunteers in many areas from collecting donations, setting up overnight stays for the cyclists, people willing to be lead and follow vehicles, food donations, endorsement seekers and much much more. We are hoping to make our second annual event bigger than even we can imagine with so much more time to plan and implement than we had before. If you are interested or just want more information please contact Kris at bikeforequality@gmail.com. Remember, all proceeds go to the fight for Marriage Equality.

Announcement #3: October 11th is National Coming Out Day. The Bridge Alliance at this writing is getting coverage in two newspapers (Bangor Daily & The Edge), and WABI, channel 5 news in our area. We are celebrating Coming Out. Harvey Milk said, 'They can't hate us once they know us. Come out...' People are speaking in the local media about their experiences of Coming Out. We are getting our stories into the public eye. The hope is that this will encourage GLBT people in the area when we are on the news. We also hope to encourage those still in the closet that there are others like them. We want to educate our straight neighbors and families about our lives, and why coming out is such a big deal in the lives of LGBT people. Hopefully parents of a youngster will hear this & be alert when their child comes out to them. We hope to educate schools. Every week we read stories of young gay teens taking their lives. We have to change this. We hope to get some radio time as well. The party is a culmination of the month, a reason to celebrate as an LGBTQA bunch of bunches of friends, & our fundraiser for youth, family & Pride events. Again, thank you all, for the work you do in bringing our community together, and informing folks - we are not alone. Happy Coming Out!! Celebrate who you are & share it with someone, change happens one person at a time...

Announcement #4: Some Portland community members have been discussing the need for a LGBTQA community center to serve as a meeting place, a location for nonprofits to have offices, a community resource, etc. We're looking for input. Is such a place needed? Any ideas? Anyone want to be involved? Please e-mail Zack at zpaakkonen@gmail.com with your thoughts.

But once they arrive for the planning of the ceremony. Also, Connor, Eric's Ex Boyfriend, who dumped Eric wants to come back after being dumped, then the boys must contend with Maxine, an oft-kilter, Lesbian Wedding Consultant who thinks she's a Clairvoyant. November 3 (Wednesday) Artist Talk with Katie Diamond - "No Straight Lines: Drawing Sexuality and Gender in Comics" - 6:00-7:30pm, University Events Room, 7th Floor, Glickman Family Library, Portland Campus Katie Diamond is a radical queer comic artist who fuses art with politics, graphics with sex, and education with visuals as a method of altering societal norms and breaking down preconceived notions of gender and sexuality. Her work throughout New England, and across the country at large, has been called "imaginative," "ambitious," "fresh," and "creative." Her dogmatic approach to comics and art as a transformative experience sets her apart from other artists. For the creation of "Transcension," a chapter in Gender Outlaws: The Next Generation, Diamond teamed up with the fiery talent of Boston-based drag/burlesque performer Johnny Blazes (www.johnnyblazes.com) to create a collaborative comic about Blazes' experience discovering his "genderqueeritude," and the process of accepting one's trans identity as a growing, changing experience of gender and the world. In her talk, Diamond dissects the process she went through to create the succinct and rich visuals for telling Johnny's story, and the various struggles and triumphs of what it means to represent gender and sexuality in two dimensions. Years of study and experimentation have given Diamond the tools to fully examine and create artistic methods that allow for subtly and intrinsically altering readers' perspectives on culturally taboo topics such as transsexuality, transgenderism, sex, and sexuality.

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :) So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups--the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____ " Any questions? let me know! THE WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER:

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" or "The FAN" in the subject line). Note that FAN issues often show up in your inbox from thefan@maine.rr.com due to technicalities of the internet.

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTQI (gay/lesbian/bisexual/trans/queer/intersexed) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers the State of Maine. The list was graciously begun and maintained for many years by Jean Vermette in Bangor. It is now operated by Zack Paakkonen of Portland. It's crept somewhat beyond a social activities newsletter into a business directory, classified ad service, and community bulletin board.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTQI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBTQ and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTQI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTQI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTQI-friendly," then do it!

ARE THERE ANY DEADLINES OR REQUIREMENTS FOR POSTING?

If you want to be sure that your posting will make it into the next issue, please send it to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org no later than four days prior to when the next issue comes out (in other words – three days before either the 1st or the 15th of the month). Although I can try to get a last-minute post into the next issue if you mail it later than my deadline, I can't guarantee it will make it. I accept postings from FAN subscribers only, and no obscenity is allowed.

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTQI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify LGBTQI status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need. Please note also that FAN issues may show up in your inbox as coming from thefan@maine.rr.com instead of from zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org due to technicalities of the internet and the vagaries of your ISP and e-mail program. It's still the same FAN from the same sender.
