Historical Note

Thomas Carper, a past professor at the University of Southern Maine, is a celebrated poet with works featured in Poetry, The American Scholar and The Formalist and has been writing sonnets since his teen years. Carper was born in Cornish, ME and splits his time between a home in the states and one in France. Carper started at USM in 1967 becoming a Professor Emeritus of English in 1997; he has an impressive and extensive professional resume as well as a strong involvement in his community. His poetry has been featured across the US and Europe in magazines and he has multiple published books, several of which have been used to teach the fundamentals of poetry.

Description of the Collection

The collection contains poems and sonnets from 1982-2011, 5 books; 4 of which were authored by Carper and 1 in which he was a co-author, digital copies of some of the poems and writing logs that were kept by Thomas Carper indicating start, finish and publication dates for most of his work. The collection begins with the newest poems and works its way backwards. There are 4 series and within the 4th series there are 16 subseries. Each of the subseries titles were taken from sticky notes or titled folders attached by Carper and contain a list of the poems included by Carper for that folder in original order. This collection was kept in the order received by Carper with the exception of a few dated folders that were put in chronological order. A copy of the original ascension list is included in the collection file. 99% of the poems or sonnets contain the original idea or rough draft and each additional draft with the final on top so as to see the progression of each poem/sonnet. Some duplicates of the same poems were left within the original folder given by Carper instead of gathered together. Bracketed dates in the finding aid are associated with poem titles found in Thomas Carper's writing log and undated poems represent titles that were not found in his writing logs.
