Biographical Sketch

Ryan Conrad (b. 1983) is a radical queer activist, artist, and educator. A Maine native, Conrad earned his undergraduate degree from Bates College in Lewiston, ME in 2005 and his Master of Fine Arts degree from the Maine College of Art in Portland in 2010. As of 2014 he is a PhD candidate in the Interdisciplinary Humanities program at Concordia University in Montreal, Quebec, where he is employed as a faculty member.

He has served as a volunteer, board member, and/or advisor for a number of community organizing groups, including EquityFund, Outright Lewiston/Auburn, Maine HIV Prevention Community Planning Group, and Maine Video Activist Network, among others. He is editor of Against Equality, a series of anthologies addressing the issues of same-sex marriage, the prison system, and militarism.

Conrad curated the June 2009 exhibition "Future of the Past: Reviving the Queer Archives" at Maine College of Art. He has exhibited his work in the United States and internationally at festivals and galleries in Canada, Germany, and Japan.

Description of the Collection

The Ryan Conrad Collection contains zines, flyers, visual media, political publications, and material ephemera dating from 1976 to 2011, with the bulk of the material originating from the early 2000s.

The Collection is divided into eight series:

Series 1. Ryan Conrad Personal Work

The first series contains items related to work in which Ryan Conrad was explicitly involved and contains materials that also fall into the subjects areas of subsequent series in the collection, including HIV/AIDS, same-sex marriage, and events and news in Maine and New England. Contents include a copy of Against Equality: Queer Critiques of Gay Marriage, which Conrad edited. It is the first book of a trilogy concerning same-sex marriage, militarism, and the industrial prison complex. Also of note are the materials connected with Conrad's 2009 art exhibit "Future of the Past," focusing on the photography of Annette Dragon.

Series 2. HIV/AIDS

This series includes a number of items relating to ACT UP (AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power), an activist group with international affiliations that addresses political and social issues of persons living with AIDS. There are also a few issues of "Diseased Pariah News," a humorous zine from the late 1980s and early 1990s with HIV/AIDS as its topic.

Series 3. Same-Sex Marriage

The items in this series are from 2009-2010. Two southern Maine newspapers are included here that date from 2009, the year a same-sex marriage bill was legalized in the state before being repealed by a referendum. Included are promotional materials both for and against "Maine Question 1, 2009," the repeal campaign.

Series 4. Outright L-A Youth Organization

This small series contains materials about Outright Lewiston/Auburn, an advocacy group for LGBTQ youth. Ryan Conrad volunteered for Outright L/A and served as a board member beginning in 2004.

Series 5. Events and News, Maine/New England

Herein are flyers and posters promoting local events including Lewiston, Maine's "Lewistunning Dragapalooza" annual drag show for the years 2008-2010. Other posters advertise local LGBTQ events such as dance parties and theater and arts events. Finally, a scanned newspaper clipping and a t-shirt reference the 2009 closure of The Sportsman's Athletic Club, a Lewiston, ME gay bar. There are also a few programs and posters from events occurring in other regions of the U.S. and in Canada.

Series 6. Publications

This series is divided into two sections. The first contains publications and ephemera from Maine and New England, including "Our Paper," a 1991 Maine newspaper and two regional zines. The second and larger section holds publications from throughout the United States and ranging broadly in topic and time period. Included are "Gay Chicago Magazine" from 1976, items relating to the 1993 March on Washington for Lesbian, Gay and Bi Equal Rights and Liberation, a variety of zines, many newspapers and other printed materials from the West Coast, and a collection of buttons.

Series 7. Incarceration

This series has a number of different zines relating to imprisonment including “Imprisoned Pride, “Chairman of the Bored,” “Left Back,” and “Weiner Society.” The Case of the New Jersey 4 (NJ4) material is of special interest in this series along with items from The Prisoner Correspondence Project.

Series 8. Anarchism

This series includes a newsletter by Naughty North, a radical queer organization in Maine of which Ryan Conrad was a part. One notable item in this series is “Cheer Yer Ass Off,” a handmade booklet of original radical cheers and illustrations.

Series 9. Oversize

This series contains materials too large or bulky to fit into regular boxes. Listed within their regular series, they are included here to give their physical location.
