Seniors

Senior Class

History

In September of 1951, the Senior class hit Gorham State's campus with more spirit than any other class in years.

After the first flush of newness had worn off, there was the all important business of studying and electing a slate of officers. We picked Franklin Roberts as president, Glen Martin as vice-president, Roberta Verrill as secretary, and Edward Bailey as our treasurer. We elected Mr. Whitten, whom we knew could help us through our difficulties and give us advice toward the solutions of our problems, as our class advisor.

For social activities we sponsored a dance after the home basketball game with Farmington State, and prepared the refreshments which were served in the student lounge. Another thing we did was to hold an outing at Douglass Mountain. This hike was a lot of fun, and even the rain couldn't dampen our spirits. We also donated money toward the fund for a needy child in a foreign country.

Before anyone of us realized it, it was spring and we were running about madly getting in those last minute projects and looking forward to summer jobs and old acquaintances.

After a busy summer vacation, we returned to G. S. T. C., and found that we had suddenly become upperclassmen. Minus a few students from our Freshmen Class we wasted very little time in electing Harry Murchie our president, and at his side, ready to take over at any time, stood Glen Martin. The bank book and pencil and pad were handled by Arlene Pulsifer and Viola Starr, with Franklin Roberts keeping us represented at Student Council meetings.

This year we Sophomores had our chance to test the marksmanship of our fellow classmates. At the Green and White Way we invited everyone to visit our shooting gallery where for a few pennies they could test their skill to see if they could hit the bull's eye, or even the target.

With June 1953, just around the corner, we suddenly realized that we had almost passed the halfway mark in our college education, and we were slowly beginning to anticipate our last two years at Gorham.

"Can this really be us?" we wondered as we returned for our third year on the Hill. It seemed like only yesterday that we entered this strange place, and today we are leaders in it. Seeing our many responsibilities before us, we settled down to the business at hand — electing our Junior Class officers. We chose David Scarlott, as our president, Darrell Payson our vice-president, Adele Kimball as secretary, and George McPhail our treasurer.

Our leadership was not in vain. Donald Cramer was president of the F. T. A. during the second semester; Ken Jordan, Jack Elliot and Jason Tibbets were presidents of the fraternities; Marshall Bean was editor-in-chief of the Pinnacle and acting president of the Student Council; Viola Starr was president of the Y. W. C. A., Barbara Jean Morton was president of the Art Club and editor of the yearbook; and Jackie Brooks was president of Amicitia. Roberta Verrill was second semester president of the Dramatic Club.

Betty Money and Ronald Cantara were co-chairmen of the Harvest Ball, which was a wonderful success. George McPhail was manager of the basketball team, while Constance Hansom and Sylvia Amadei were elected co-captains of the cheerleaders. In the winter, Robert Adams took the first place in a ski meet between Farmington and Gorham.

In the spring we planned and put on the annual Commencement Ball for the seniors with Barbara Jean Morton and Jack Elliot serving as co-chairmen. With this event we ended our third year at Gorham State, and suddenly we realized that it would be the last time our class would be together until graduation.

It couldn't be, but it was — we were seniors at last. Ferns, bugs, and English themes were now things of the past as we found ourselves all in a dither about going out to do our student teaching.

We elected Keith McClaskey as our president, Jackie Brooks our vice-president, Pat Tardiff our secretary, and Jack Elliot as our treasurer. Harry Murchie represented our class for the first semester in Student Council. James Whitten and Robert Miller were our advisors.

Our Senior Variety Show was anxiously awaited for. The Christmas season found us collecting old toys in our homes, repairing them, and sending them to the children at the Pownal State School. Monthly coffee hours and meetings were a must in our busy schedule.

All of a sudden we found ourselves going contract crazy. To leave (the state) or not to leave — that was the question. The last month found us in a whirlwind of activities — arrangements for graduation, rehearsals, meetings, banquets, outings, and commencement Ball.

June had come, and four years had gone. Those years suddenly seemed awfully short as the degrees were passed out and the Alma Mater sung for the last time as a student.

In Memoriam

We the class of 1955 of Gorham State Teachers College wish to dedicate this page to our friend and former classmate Barbara Silver.

Barbara entered Gorham in 1951 from Lewiston High School where she was an honor student. She was known to us as an energetic individual, a competent worker, and a great lover of nature. Her close companions recognized her wisdom, courage, and versatility. These fond memories of Barbara will always be cherished.

Underclassmen

Junior Class

History

This fall the class of 1956 came back on the Hill with both barrels loaded and ready to fire. The class was out to show the college that though its number was small its potentials were great.

Among the fading summer activities, there were Juniors on hand to extend a welcome during Freshmen Orientation week-end to our new freshmen and that all important surprise guest "Hurricane Edna." Despite all "Edna's" fury and bluster, spirits were not dampened in the week-end activities led by retiring mayor, Leroy Rand. The new recruits recovered from their vigorous orientation splendidly and were well established by the time the upperclassmen arrived on the Hill in the usual clamorous and confusing moving of trunks, suitcases, boxes, files and books. Never before did so many tanned faces enter the dorms of East and Robie Halls to begin another exciting and eventful year.

No craft can sail long without a skipper, consequently the class met to elect their officers for the coming year. This called for serious consideration and after due deliberation Ronald Banks was chosen to serve his second term as skipper. To be doubly secure in our voyage, Wilfred Gouzie was made second in command with Connie Gray keeping the ship's log and Betty Lou Dodge handling all financial disputes. To be sure of representation in all legal proceedings, Diane Lefebvre was elected to our Student Council where she has voiced our cause very well.

As is the case in most advanced cultures, G. S. T. C. is governed by the necessary evil of a Student Council. Our class is proud to announce that Dick Kelley was chosen vice-president by the student body and ably served as chairman the first semester in the absence of Don Cramer who was student teaching. Assisting in the cause was Diane Richmond who recorded all proceedings of the council for the year.

This was indeed to become a big year for the Skipper and his crew. It seems there were many able men hidden in the vessel and their talents were discovered shortly after sailing. Leading their respective fraternities were Richard Winslow, Lynn Markee, and Bill Alexander all potential captains. And we mustn't forget the female members on the ship of whom Diane Richmond was elected President of the Amicitia Club.

It seems that government does not pertain merely to student council. The dorm also has its committee to direct the ways of the girls. Once again the class of '56 sailed through with Jackie Lajoie at the helm directing the first semester.

One reminder for all college students of their busy days is their annual yearbook and this year we can all salute Bruce Henderson for editing the fine edition you are reading now. Regardless of all attempts, no good publication is put out without an able staff and we must look to June Halberts, Betty Lou Dodge, Ann Feehan, Connie Maclean and Janet Bradeen all from our crew who did so much to make this possible.

Regardless of all else that takes place in this world, religion is primary to us and among the leaders here from the Junior class were Bill Alexander active in the S. C. A., Diane Richmond vice-president of the Y. W. C. A. and Leroy Rand president of the Newman Club.

Whoever said sports were not an essential to college life was a little confused to say the least and the class of '56 can prove it. Captain "Butch" Beote led the Hilltoppers followed by "Tony" Wedge, Keith Packard and Donald O'Malley whose added weight to the arc sent Gorham sailing through the season with plenty of thrills. Nor were we to remain out of the baseball picture. Ronnie Banks led the team with "Butch" Beote and Keith Packard among the Players.

Again we must claim leaders among our crew. Diane Lefebvre and Geraldine Hallet were elected co-captains of our cheerleading squad which helped to send our boys on to many victories during the basketball season.

You must understand this was not all work and no play. We had our big social events also. In the fall Diane Lefebvre and Ralph Egers co-captained the Harvest Ball which was a success for all who attended. The year also closed with the memorable Commencement Ball at which the juniors honored the seniors before they passed beyond these halls into the teaching profession. Once again we were nobly led by June Halberts and Tony Wedge.

It would take pages to relate our successes in the social and cultural organizations on campus but you can rest assured the Juniors were on hand in all events.

This year Gorham was honored by having two of its students elected State officers of the F. T. A. This honor was again bestowed upon our Junior class. At the teachers convention in Portland, Ralph Egers was handed the gavel as State President and Diane Richmond once again took up the pen and paper to record proceedings.

This has indeed been a busy year and the Juniors have certainly sounded their trumpet loud enough to be heard across the campus. Once again June is here and the ever important house cleaning is being done as we prepare to take up our respective summer jobs, but you know it was only yesterday that we took our seats in the back of chapel and looked down and it was only a few headaches ago that we made all those devices and took those exams. It really hasn't been so long and haven't we accomplished a lot?

Well, gang, enjoy yourself this summer and come back to us with plenty of vim and vigor this fall. Remember we have finally hit that almighty top as seniors and that little taste of teaching is just around the corner. By the way, I hear those kids aren't so tough to teach despite all the rumors and they really are quite human.

Sophomore Class

History

The class of 1957 came to G. S. T. C. as green freshmen from various high schools from Presque Isle to Kittery. As participants of the first freshman week-end, they learned their way around the school. After the first nervousness wore off, they settled down for their first year of college life.

At election time, they chose an excellent slate — president Bernie Neveux, vice-president Gwen Thornton, secretary Fern Tardif, and treasurer Les LaFond. Under their guidance, the class planned a successful booth in the Green and White Way and held a dance in the spring.

Thespians of the class shone in the Dramatic Club's productions — Ellen Parsons and Bruce Allen scored a hit in the hillbilly musical "Sadie Shaw from Arkansas," and Lee Pelkey and Jim Gammon were outstanding in "The Boar."

Members of the class of '57 really shone in the field of athletics. Fern Masse, Fred Ramsdell, and Bob Hawkes were members of the starting basketball team. Other members were Les LaFond, Bill Schultz, Dick Leone, Dick Shaw and Carl Shibles.

After spring vacation, time passed so quickly — time for the freshmen to take part in the annual end-of-school outings and then they scattered for the summer.

Returning to school in September, the class found its numbers depleted but energy and enthusiasm heightened. After assisting the freshmen during orientation week-end, the sophomores settled down to business. Under their newly-elected officers, Rodney Shane, president; Dave Parker, vice-president; Betty Hughes, secretary; and Bev Woodfords, treasurer; they began a new method of taking up class business. They set up an executive committee composed of two persons from each division to take up new business before presenting it to the class. This method seems to have worked very well.

Energetic! This class is really going to town. Dave Parker, our mayor, is a sophomore class officer and the unsuccessful candidates Ralph Berry and Bernie Neveux were also sophomores.

The basketball team still boasts that many of its members belong to '57. Fern Masse, Bob Hawkes, Fred Ramsdell, Carl Shibles, Dana Shaw, and Dick Shaw are still playing.

Ursie Giroux is also a product of the sophomore class representing us well on the cheer-leading squad.

Ellen Parson is still acting. This year it was "Night of January 16th" in which she did an excellent job.

The sophomores put on a successful show in the Green and White Way. Success seems to follow them.

As leaders in clubs and organizations here on the Hill, they seem to be doing a commendable job.

W. A. A. — Joyce Stover, president

Outing Club — Jerry Black, vice-president; Raejean Lancaster, treasurer.

Acapella Chorus — Ellen Parsons, secretary-treasurer.

Art Club — Harriet Morton, president; Pete Pinson, treasurer; Eleanor Holmes, secretary.

Y. W. C. A. — Ellen Bailey, secretary.

F. T. A. — Jerry Black, vice-president.

Dramatic Club — Norma Brown, secretary; Ellen Parsons, treasurer.

Newman Club — Jeanne Dawson, vice-president.

Commuters Club — Ginny Asker, president; Tom Curran, treasurer.

Also many class of '57 members belong to the "Hillcrest" or "Pinnacle" staffs — Carol Norman, Clayton Gross, Giny Gardner, Pam Whitten, Charlene Boisvert, Cynthia Johnson, Dot Taylor, Joyce Stover and Tom Curran.

As they pass the half-way mark in their college careers, this class of 1957 can look back with a feeling of pride at what they have thus accomplished. As they continue their way through college, let us hope that they bring to a successful conclusion the days that had begun so carefully.

Freshmen Class

History

The Freshmen class arrived in a most confused state of mind. However, this confusion was eased by the Orientation Program the week-end before classes began. Due to the work of Hurricane "Edna", we found it a little difficult to orient ourselves to college buildings and the campus as the lights were out for quite a few hours. The girls who obeyed the handbook and brought flashlights were very lucky! I don't really think we have needed them since.

After school got under way, the Freshmen found themselves faced with the problem of electing suitable class officers. We had a class meeting in Russell Hall and elected the students we thought would do the best job for the class. As president we have the capable Robert Corbeil, as vice-president friendly Phil Kilburne, as secretary hard-working Jacqueline Pepin, and as treasurer hard-working Nancy Carroll. The Freshmen representatives to student council are Elaine Fraser and Dick Howard.

The class of '58 was given a very lovely Freshman's Reception. Everyone looked so nice in their gowns and of course the most formal manners were being displayed. After meeting the faculty, refreshments were enjoyed by all. To do the reception credit, a dance was held. There was a large turnout and it was a splendid way to meet new friends.

The Green and White Way provided a chance for the class of "58" to show off their many talents. We set up a "Cafe in Paris" with food and entertainment for everyone. Mary Jane Spear was our French singer direct from Paris. The hard work of everyone was much appreciated and made the plans a success.

The Harvest Ball had a good percentage of the class attending. The girls were all excited as it was the first formal of the year.

When the time for joining clubs arrived, the freshmen boosted the membership of many organizations. The "Pinnacle" and "Hillcrest" especially have appreciated the hard work of the freshmen. In Dramatic Club the class has many of its talented members in it. The play "Night of January 16th" had many freshmen actresses and actors.

Soon came the time for cheerleading tryouts. Five of the eight cheerleaders chosen were freshmen. These spirited girls are Mary Ann Long, Jackie Pepin, Maxine Willet, Betty Talarico, and Dorothy Hamlin.

Along with the cheerleaders, our basketball squad has its share of our boys. Besides our representatives on the J. V. team, Bill Obermyer is on the varsity team.

As to the size of the class, we are one of the largest G. S. T. C. has ever had. Of the one hundred and seventy-five, a good number of these are commuters. Even though the commuters do not stay on campus, we find them very active members in all clubs and activities.

The "Y" Lite show let us once again spotlight some new talent. Now we know where to go for shows and other things coming up in the future.

Naturally, the mayor campaign had the class support. We worked hard to help our favorite candidate.

Activities

Student Council

President ..... Donald Cramer
 Vice President ..... Dick Kelly
 Secretary-Treasurer ..... Diane Richmond

The Student Council is the student governing body on campus. All members are elected from their fraternities, organizations, or classes to be representatives to the council. The council is very fortunate in having Mr. Bowman and Miss Sawyer serve as faculty advisors. The council is governed by Parliamentary Law. Serving as Parliamentarian for the first semester was John Christopher and for the second semester was Ann Feehan.

Diane Lefevre and Ralph Egers served as co-chairmen of the Harvest Ball. The highlight of the ball was the naming of Dave Parker as Mayor of Gorham.

In February the Student Council again sponsored the annual Coronation Ball which climaxed with the crowning of the Queen — Elaine Frasier. Serving as chairman of this affair were Bruce Henderson, and Fred St. Cyr.

The Council was very active in the revision of several policies this year — namely the voting for Mayor and Queen and the selection of Queen candidates.

The council worked along with Doctor Bailey and succeeded in opening the Lounge and Library at night for student use. This was an accomplishment for which all the students on the hill are grateful.

We elected Bruce Henderson and Woodbury Moulton to represent G.S.T.C. at the National Teachers' College Conference in New York this March.

The council is again sponsoring the War Orphan program. We are happy to be foster parents to little Eleftheria Liapi of Greece.

At this time the members of the Student Council would like to thank both the faculty and student body for their cooperation throughout the year.

Hillcrest

BRUCE N. HENDERSON
Editor-in-chief

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

This year the associated editors were Tom Curran and Carol Norman. They worked under the Editor-in-chief and together they produced the Hillcrest. Their ideas and helpful information are valuable when it comes to rating the yearbook. Also to them we give thanks and appreciation for all they've done.

SENIOR SECTION EDITORS

June Halberts and Betty Lou Dodge are certainly to be recommended for the excellent job they did as co-directors of the senior section. It requires a lot of arranging and organizing to produce a satisfactory product that is acceptable to everyone. This year's senior section is something to be proud of and I'm sure everyone recognizes the effort that was put into it.

ACTIVITIES EDITORS

As it is well realized, activities take up a lot of our G. S. T. C. students' time. There is so much going on that it is almost impossible to give each thing that happens its proper publicity. The co-activity editors this year are Ann Feehan and Alison Libby. They have covered each activity with equal talent and we want to thank them for their time and effort.

ART EDITORS

The art section of this yearbook couldn't have been handled any better than by Fred St. Cyr and Patty Carmichael. They certainly have an artistic talent which is undisputable. They have worked hard on many projects this year but we think that they have given their best to the production of the Hillcrest. We want to congratulate them on their fine job and thank them for their collaborated talents.

SPORTS EDITORS

Joyce Stover, Barbara Hill and Harry Murchie have done a commendable job on organizing all the sports material for the '55 yearbook. G. S. T. C. has had an excellent record in sports this year and we had to have some expert writers to cover all their activities adequately.

ADVERTISING EDITORS

We know that advertising is one of the most important parts of any book or magazine. Anyone who has gotten advertisements knows that it takes a lot of time and persistence to get the minimum supply of advertisements. Two groups have to be thanked for this part of our yearbook. The advertising editors and of course the advertisers. We appreciate their co-operation for without their aid we wouldn't be able to have our yearbook. Yes, Janet Bradeen and Joan Edgett have done a commendable job as co-ordinators of acquiring advertisements.

TYPING EDITORS

Typing editors for this year's Hillcrest were Becky Trufant and Betty Call. Typing is essential when it comes to setting up any newspaper or book. It isn't one of the most enjoyable jobs there could be and we know that anyone couldn't do such a fine job as these two have done. So to them we give our deepest appreciation for a job well done.

PHOTO EDITORS

Bob Corbeil and Clayton Gross have done an excellent job as photo editors. At all Gorham's activities those two could always be depended upon to get good pictures with their somewhat commercialized cameras. Of course of most interest are the little candid shots taken of Gorham students at unexpected times. When those and all the other pictures have been appraised we find that Clayton and Bob have done a very professional job.

MR. WHITTEN

Our advisor, Mr. Whitten, a member of the faculty has done a fine job in giving us the inspiration and leadership the staff needed. We could always depend on him to help us out of any troubles and to show us the proper way of doing some difficult job.

Canterbury Club

- President ..... Norene Grover
- Vice-President ..... Margaret Bowden
- Secretary-Treasurer ..... Nancy Knight

The Canterbury Club is an active organization especially designed to strengthen the faith and to knit together spiritually all of the Episcopal students on campus.

Regular weekly meetings of evening prayer and discussions are held on campus and once a month the Gorham Canterbury Club joins with Portland Junior College and Westbrook Junior College for a social gathering at Trinity Church under the direction of Rev.

Shirley B. Goodwin.

Our faculty advisor on the hill is Mr. Bowman and Mr. and Mrs. Rose are our local advisors. This year we are especially indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Patchem of Gorham who have given us transportation each Sunday to church.

Our program has been most successful and we are looking forward to an even better year in 1956.

Newman Club

President ..... Leroy Rand
 Vice-President ..... Jeanne Dawson
 Secretary ..... Patti Carmichael
 Treasurer ..... Barbara Brown
 Student Council ..... Ann Feehan and Nancy Whitcomb

The Newman Club is a religious organization for Catholic students and has the three-fold purpose of channeling the spiritual, educational and social development of its members toward those virtuous characteristics which are symbolic of our patron, John Henry, Cardinal Newman. In his own life, the cardinal attempted to emulate the perfection of Jesus Christ.

Achievement of this goal is attained through a diversified program of events. This is done particularly through our chief activity the Annual Retreat. This year the Retreat master was Rev. James J. Lyons, S. J. of Boston. Other activities included our Fall Frolic and Halloween Dance.

The Rev. Andrew Kelleher is the Chaplain and advisor for the Newman Club which functions chiefly through our elected officers and our faculty advisor, Mr. Richard Costello.

With perseverance, determination and help from Almighty God, the Newman Club will strive to continue to foster the spiritual welfare of its members.

Men's Christian Association

President ..... William Alexander
 Vice President ..... Herman Grogan
 Sec. and Treas. .... Francis Hartford

In the past, the Men's Christian Association, formerly the Student Christian Association, has been very active in the organization itself. Fulfilling the objectives was our chief purpose. These objectives are: To help students realize the importance of Christ in their everyday lives; To offer a source of Christian fellowship on and off the campus; and finally, To acquaint the individual with the Bible through discussions, speakers, movies and in so doing, obtain the acceptance of Christ as their personal savior.

The activities of this year consisted mostly of speakers, discussions, visitations, movies, and conference attendance. The most outstanding events being the deputation team work in and around the Portland area, Religious Week, which was a very successful week, and our annual Hymn Sing held in the month of March.

Our future looks optimistic in that we plan to combine with the Y. W. C. A. eventually enabling us to work together as one organization. Also we plan to center our work more around the campus especially with devotional and seasonal services and other activities of this sort.

The organization is open to all male students and meets once a week. Visitors are always welcome to join with us at the meetings.

A man once said, "Preparation for this life is one thing, preparation for eternity is another." So may we strive to prepare ourselves for HIS sake.

Y. W. C. A.

President ..... Margaret Wentworth
 Vice President ..... Diane Richmond
 Secretary ..... Ellyn Bailey
 Treasurer ..... Barbara Robinson

The Y. W. C. A. has over one hundred members and is one of the most active organizations on campus. This year it began its season with Freshman Orientation weekend.

Other activities have included the faculty tea, Recognition service, Green and White Way and the Y-Lite show, where new talent is brought into focus.

The "Y" plans as usual to conduct Bible and Political discussion groups; hold vesper services and morning devotions. The Cabinet Retreat will highlight the spring program.

Outing Club

President ..... Bruce Henderson
 Vice-President ..... Jerry Black
 Secretary ..... Geraldine Hallett
 Treasurer ..... Raejean Lancaster

Gorham's Outing Club has become one of the largest student organizations on campus. Its varied program which includes both campus activities and off campus trips, provides fun for all.

The year's first excursion was a Mount Washington climb. This proved to be very exciting and was a new experience for many of us. Other sponsored activities included swimming, a roller-skating party, sailing on Casco Bay and the I. O. C. A. Conference held at the Snow Ball in Camden.

The most exciting and busiest time of the year for the Outing Club, however, is the sponsoring of the Winter Carnival which has its Chairman this year, Ralph Egers and Co-Chairman, Sally Park.

The Outing Club is fortunate this year to have Mr. Moberg and Mr. Costello as faculty advisors and their help and enthusiasm have been greatly appreciated by all.

Dramatic Club

President ..... Viola Starr
 Vice-President ..... Edward Haggerty
 Secretary ..... Norma Brown
 Treasurer ..... Ellen Parsons

The Dramatic Club presented another full year of entertainment to the campus — "dramatics for and by the students of the college."

Under the able leadership the organization produced two major productions as well as three one-act plays.

All-out cooperation between members brought forth theatre triumph worthy of any campus stage. The first production was "The Night of January 16th," which brought in a lot of new talent.

The Dramatic Club functions with the hope of giving students a chance to understand and participate in dramatic skills. The club gives one an opportunity to learn how to make-up, direct a play, put up sets, act, or advertise and keep the play organized in order to give a good performance. Everyone works in order to benefit and give enjoyment to others.

Amicitia Club

President ..... Diane Richmond
 Vice-President ..... Jean McKay
 Secretary ..... Beverly Woodford
 Treasurer ..... Carol Keene

The purpose of the Amicitia Club is the promotion of friendship. The club, consisting of about 40 members, meets twice a month; one meeting devoted to recreation and the other to business and planning activities.

With the help of our advisors, Miss Sawyer and Miss Dunn, we plan various activities such as packing boxes of clothes for needy families in the town of Gorham and sponsor teas. Other activities held this year have been open lounge, sponsoring an assembly, and a style show.

A Cappella Chorus

President .....	Janet Gullifer
Vice-President .....	Ann Crosby
Secretary .....	Rodney Shain
Treasurer .....	Ellen Parsons

The A Cappella Chorus is a combination of the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs. The chorus consists of seventy-two members. This group is under the able direction of Miss Miriam Andrews and the accompanist is Charlene Elliot.

The chorus performs various programs throughout the year. Among these are the annual Thanksgiving and Christmas programs and Teachers' Convention entertainment. An operetta has been planned.

In these and many other ways we strive for our purpose: to foster a better understanding and a higher appreciation of music in this college.

Hilltoppers

This year marked the initial appearance of the Gorham Hilltoppers, a dance band comprised of G. S. T. C. students. Enthusiasm ranks high and the year has been a huge success. The Hilltoppers were in great demand at basketball games during the half as well as at many other school functions.

The theme is collegiate with the members dressing to fit the theme. The Hilltoppers have perfected several novelty numbers which were a hit with the students. Among these were Piano Roll Blues, Little Brown Jug, and Can Can Polka. The members have as good a time playing as the audience has listening.

Under their faculty adviser, Miss Heel, this group hopes to go far. Although limited in size the Hilltoppers welcome tryouts for membership. With the center of this organization being freshmen, Gorham can look forward to several years of outstanding musical programs.

The Orchestra

The orchestra is under the direction of Miss Helen Heel and has progressed considerably since it was formed last semester.

The members are: violins, Janet C. Gullifer, Portland; Helen L. Roberts, China; Gladys J. Rowe, Gorham; String bass, Janet E. Campbell, Rye Beach, N. H.; flute, Marlene G. McBane, Middleboro, Mass.; clarinets, Ellyn-Jean Bailey, Bucksport and Carmen Colbertt, Norway; alto saxophone, Janet L. Chappell, Kennebunk; tenor saxophone, Kay Keizer, Thomaston; trumpets, William J. Morrow, Sanford; and William G. Porter, Kennebunk; trombones, Llewellyn R. Nelson, Portland and Martitia Walker, Augusta, and Piano, Faith Roberts, Milbridge.

Starting out as a small group the orchestra is well balanced in instrumentation. More members were added this semester and now the orchestra boasts members. At rehearsals we all take turns directing the group as part of our training. Some members participated in a campus school Christmas program. On January 11, we gave a concert for the students and faculty in Russell Hall. Out-door concerts for student enjoyment are planned for the spring months.

House Committee

FIRST SEMESTER OFFICERS

President .....	Jacqueline Lajoie
Vice-President .....	Barbara Luce
Secretary .....	Viola Starr
Treasurer .....	Jean McKay

The House Committee is the student governing body of Robie Hall and East Hall, the two women's dormitories. Members are elected for a term of one semester by the two hundred resident women students.

In addition to the four officers, there is one representative from each of the twelve sections of the dormitories. Each representative is responsible for initiating discussion at a house committee meeting on any matter of concern to those from her section. In this way the interests of everyone are given careful consideration and are often adopted as part of the governing system of the dormitories.

Each section of the house has a representative. These representatives are chosen to serve one semester; after which they are eligible to serve as an officer during their junior or senior year. Among the services rendered by committee members are closing the dormitories for the night, upholding the rules and regulations, and serving on special committees, plus having charge of open house in the two dormitories and open campus.

House Committee members, realizing that a government is as good as the governing body makes it, practice fairness and democracy. By being good citizens, they promote good citizenship in the two dormitories.

House Committee, which meets formally once a week is advised by the Dean of Women, the Housemothers, and the assistant Dean.

Commuters' Club

President .....	Virginia Asker
Secretary .....	Dorothy Chase
Treasurer .....	Thomas Curran

The Commuters' Club is the only club on the campus which is founded especially for those students who do not live on the hill. Its membership is open only to commuters while its aim is to make up for those activities the commuters are forced to miss.

Throughout the year the club has socials and parties, bowling, scotch auctions, candy, and food sales while the annual Farmington-Gorham banquet is the club's largest project.

All our activities are guided along by our advisors, Mr. Miller and Mr. Martin. We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks for all their time, support, and guidance given for the benefit of the club.

Pinnacle

Editor in Chief .....	Carol Norman
Associate Editor .....	Bruce Henderson
Assistant Editor .....	Betty Call
Literary .....	Mary Ann Long
Typists .....	Jackie Perry, Becky Trufant, Barbara Nichols
Sports Editors .....	Joyce Stover, Harry Murchie
Art Editors .....	Pat Carmichael, Fred St. Cyr
Photography Editors .....	Clayton Gross, Robert Corbeil

Our Pinnacle is a newly formed institution in which we should be justly proud. Through the combined efforts of its staff, it creates interest and enthusiasm in activities on our Gorham campus.

The way in which the student body welcomes each monthly installment is ample thanks to all of those who work so hard in making its publication possible. We hope that this interest is carried throughout the college careers of all of you.

Special thanks go to Mr. Weeks and Mr. Whitten who are our faculty advisors.

Political Discussion

Chairman ..... Beverly Powers
 Program Chairman ..... Margaret Wentworth

The purpose of Political Discussion is to create interest in world affairs. Our meetings are informal and open to everyone wishing to increase his knowledge and broaden his interest in political topics. Our topics are not limited to any one field; they may be town, state, national, or international, or affairs of the past, present or future.

Political Discussion is under the supervision of the World Relatedness Commission of the Young Women's Christian Association, and meets every Tuesday evening from 7:00 till 8:00 in the inner Robie Reception Room.

Future Teachers of America

President ..... Donald Cramer
 Vice-President ..... Jerry Black
 Secretary ..... Ann Feehan
 Treasurer ..... Ralph Egers
 Historian ..... Ronnie Rouliat
 Librarian ..... Diane Richmond
 Parliamentarian ..... Betty Lou Dodge
 Student Council ..... Janet Bradeen and Pam Whitten

The chief aim of our chapter is to acquaint the members with the professional aspect of teaching, and this year was the building of a bigger and better organization at Gorham.

Gorham received an additional honor this year by having two of our members elected to officers of M. F. T. A. Ralph Egers serves as President and Diane Richmond as Secretary of the State organization.

The high point of the year was the M. F. T. A. convention at Gorham.

Veteran's Club

President ..... Robert Sampson
 Vice-President ..... Lynn Markee
 Secretary ..... Reginald Harper
 Treasurer ..... Paul Thibodeau

The Veteran's Club was formed this year to supply the Veteran's on campus with an organization of group representation. It is intended to furnish him with information from his local Veteran's Administration, thus having a better understanding of its benefits and the G. I. Bill.

The organization has been arranged to insure a better club for its members in the future.

Art Club

President ..... Harriet Morton
 Vice-President ..... Elizabeth Prentice
 Secretary ..... Eleanor Holmes
 Treasurer ..... Peter Pinson

This year the Art Club has expanded considerably. The members have worked hard together on group and individual projects.

With Mr. Brocato's aid and advice we have accomplished many different projects ranging from wood burning and leather working to all painting.

Each year during national art week our club holds a silver tea and art exhibit.

Camera Club

President ..... Reginald Harper
 Vice-President ..... Pete Pinson
 Secretary ..... Clayton H Gross

The Camera Club has been in existence on the hill for a number of years. Its primary aim and purpose is to bring together those of us who share a mutual interest in photography. The club not only functions as an opportunity for an exchange of technical knowledge and knowhow but as a place for the development of friendships formed out of mutual interest in our hobby.

Another thing the club is interested in developing in its members is enough ability in the handling of photographic equipment to enable him to take advantage of it as a help in his future profession. This would enable the future teacher to make from his own collection an assemblage of color slides, lantern slides, and photographic prints useful in the classroom.

During the remainder of the year the club is planning a number of interesting projects. Among these is a series of experiments with the new films several of which have recently come onto the market, both B&W and color. Darkroom work is also planned thanks to the cooperation of the industrial arts department. Third on the list are some field trips taking advantage of the fine (we hope) spring weather.

Varsity "G" Club

President ..... Anthony Wedge
 Vice-President ..... Robert Hawkes
 Secretary-Treasurer ..... Keith Packard
 Representative to Student Council ..... Fern Masse

The Varsity "G" Club is an organization made up of young men who have won letters in varsity competition. The main function of the club is to supervise the intramural sport program of the college.

Among the activities sponsored by the "G" Club, the annual Halloween Party put on for the town children each October, is the most important and the biggest success.

The club may be said to be the chief promoter of good sportsmanship habit which prevails on the Hill. Granted, in activities where contact is prevalent, tempers are bound to flare. But under the supervision of the Varsity "G" Club tempers are often quenched before they lead to trouble. As a result, our teams, both varsity and intramurals, are highly respected by all.

Though we found our numbers had decreased when we returned in the fall, we were kept strong in organization under the able leadership of our officers.

Others who played an important part in the functions of the club were Ronald Banks, Robert Greene, Richard Beote, and Wilfred Gauzie.

The activities of the club were under the supervision of Mr. Frank Pollard, faculty advisor.

Displaying the most powerful offensive attack in Gorham State Teachers College hoop history, the 1954-55 Hilltopper cage crew compiled a commendable 10-3 New England Teachers College Conference record, a 14 and 4 overall mark.

In the well-balanced conference loop the Hilltoppers' 10 and 3 mark was topped only by the 14-4 record set by defending NETCC champs, Salem.

This latest rendition of Gorham cagers proved to be unbeatable at home against conference rivals. Only Norwich University, in a non-conference set to, was able to defeat the Gorham quintet in the friendly confines of Russell Hall. Norwich's diminutive Joe Montgomery stepped to the free throw line twice in last minute of play and coolly dropped four straight charity tosses through the hoop to give the visitors a slender 73-70 edge.

Although Salem, Plymouth, and Keene found the GSTC five too rough here in Russell Hall, the three league foes were able to tag conference setbacks upon the Hilltoppers when they battled the Gorham team on their own familiar battlegrounds.

The setback at the hands of Salem in the last game of the year knocked the pins out from under any Gorham conference title hopes. Sharp shooting any Gorham Pete Doyle was the big thorn in the side of the Gorham squad as he hit for 43 big points while leading Salem to an 83-77 victory.

Top games for Gorham probably were the triumphs over Salem, Plymouth, and Keene plus a win over a strong New Britain five in a 86-85 squeaker, as Tony Wedge tallied 29 points and Fern Masse and Keith Packard added 20 each.

Mention should be made of the decisive, but exciting, victories Gorham gained over traditional Maine rival, Farmington. Heading the Hilltopper attack in both tussles was Wedge as he banged home 69 points. While the Hilltoppers had too much overall court class for the Farmington team, the traditional rivalry built up over the years more than made up for the wide point spreads which Gorham enjoyed.

While chalking up their 14 victories the Green and White cagers of Coach Frank Pollard the leather sphere through the hoop at an average of 86.8 points per game, a fine demonstration of offensive basketball even in this day and age of high scoring contests.

Top man in the Hilltopper offensive machine was Tony Wedge, high scoring Green and White center for the past three years. This past season Wedge set what is thought to be a new GSTC individual scoring record as he scored 439 points in the Hilltoppers' 18 contest for a 25.8 average per game. These 439 points run Wedge's three year point total to more than 1100 points.

Wedge received plenty of scoring support from his four court cohorts, Fern Masse, Keith Packard, Fred Ramsdell, and Captain "Butch" Beote, as all five members of the starting five hit for an average of 11 points or better per game.

Coach Frank Pollard deserves a tip of the hat for his job of molding this aggregation of hoop talent in a smooth working combine. In his second year of varsity basketball coaching here on the hill, Pollard had his team right in the thick of the conference battle for the loop crown.

Furthermore, Coach Pollard can look forward to the coming court campaign with an optimistic gleam in his eyes. For next fall the entire starting quintet plus ranking reserves, Bill Obermeyer, Bob Hawkes, Les Lafond, and Co. will trot up the stairs from the dressing room to answer the call for candidates to represent Gorham in the 1955-56 basketball wars.

While writing about the Gorham basketball squad, we shouldn't overlook the endless hours of work contributed to the Hilltopper cause by this year's fine crew of managers. So, an additional tip of the battered old derby to Dick Kelley, Jerry Black, Pete Pinson, and Charlie Miller.

All women students belong to the Women's Athletic Association and all are invited to participate in as many of the women's sports as they wish. The W. A. A. is governed by a board of officers, counselors, and a representative from the cheerleaders. The main duties of the board are to control women's sports and allied activities, and to be in charge of selling merchandise in order to make money for the W. A. A.

The women's athletic program at Gorham State Teachers College ranges from the more highly organized team sports, such as field hockey, to the indoor and individual sports, such as ping-pong and bicycle riding.

The W. A. A. maintains a point system to give recognition to those who participate in sports. Each sport entitles the participant to 25 points, but the number of hours of participation varies with each activity. There is a counselor for each sport who keeps a record of the hours. In no case do individuals receive additional points for being a champion or a member of a varsity team. The girl who has earned 50 points receives her class numerals; 150 points, her "G"; 300 points, her pin; and 500 points her jacket.

The college has adequate equipment for most of the women's activities, and facilities, such as the tennis courts and gymnasium, are shared equally by men and women.

Editor's Last Words

In the past year, various editors have wished to accomplish two things: first of all to produce a book containing something of importance to every student and second, to thank all who aided in making the publication possible.

The book is before you to decide the first but, as for the second I would like to pay tribute to those who without their co-operation a year book such as ours could not have been published.

First of all I would like to thank our printer the Portland Lithograph Company for their splendid co-operation and secondly the Vantine's Studios for their superb glossy prints.

Last but by far not least my many thanks to the office staff and faculty who helped in one way or another to complete this book.
