CLASS ODE

Tune: Londonderry Air

*Bright glows the east, with ever deep'ning crimson
That brings its promise of approaching day.
When joy and pain alike will be our portion,
As forth we journey on Life's broad Highway.
And if the day brings happiness and pleasure,
Or parting ways bring sorrows, tears like rain,
A gleam of hope will light the future's shadowed way
Like living torch, kept bright by mem'ries ardent flame.*

*Oh! merry days so filled with work and playing,
Swift days that teem with wisdom's shining gold.
Will soon be only life's most precious mem'ries
Of happy hours, and fondest friendships old
So this our prayer, now as the portals open
And forth we fare for service far and wide,
May Honor guide us ever on the upward path,
And in our hearts an everlasting Truth abide.*

*Until the day when once again we gather
May gracious Fortune smile on us and thee,
Be loved school on Gorham's wooded hillside
And may Success thy watchword ever be.
So if we sigh as parting hours draw nearer,
Or if we thrill at Life's approaching test
To Gorham Normal we will ever loyal stand,
For her our praise as long as life for us shall last.*

Mildred Cole
