ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTQI community members that you think other GLBTQI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

Announcement #1: Trans Youth Equality Foundation has openings for their TYEF Summer and Fall Retreats in Maine. These overnight retreats are for transgender and gender non-conforming youth ages 9-18. For the first time this summer, the foundation will be holding the retreat at an outstanding and established camp in Maine. Our activities will range from kayaking to water and land robotics, art and hiking culminating each night in a camp fire gathering with smores and songs and friendship. We will continue to incorporate our standout support groups, and workshops in "know your legal rights" and many topics relevant to transgender youth and led by experts in these areas. The staff is all volunteer and well trained, there is medical staff present at all times during camp. We have scholarships available for those who would like to apply. If you would like to sponsor a child to attend these retreats your generosity would be greatly appreciated. Summer retreat is the weekend of July 13. Fall retreat dates will be announced soon. Our popular retreats are so exciting that all campers from last year are returning and we always warmly welcome new people. Pick up at train, bus and airport in Portland available. Location of camp is confidential. For more information please contact Susan Maasch at contact@transyouthequality.org or 207-478-4087

Announcement #2: Seacoast Outright is looking for some help for upcoming fundraisers: Bands for a concert series - anyone know of any willing to do a benefit concert? Art - We are looking for artists to donate a piece of their work for our fundraiser Art to Go this coming August! Contact info@SeacoastOutright.org if you can help!

JUNE

June 7 – 10 (Thursday – Sunday) Lincolntonville. Make Beautiful Tribe Spring Retreat. More details coming soon. See <http://makebeautifultribe.org/spring-2012-retreat/> for more information.

June 13 (Wednesday) Portland. 2012 LGBT Collection Open House. 5:00 P.M. Special Collections, 6th Floor Glickman Family Library, USM Portland Campus. Each June, the LGBT Collection of the Sampson Center for Diversity in Maine, hosts an Open House event. This year, the annual Open House will also honor Ron McClinton (1945-1992) on the 20th anniversary of his passing. When Ron moved back to Maine in 1988, he knew he was dying of AIDS. That did not stop his service to the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer/Questioning, and Allied communities over the next four years. A Vietnam Veteran, Ron founded the Matlovich Society in Portland. He envisioned the Society as both an educational tool and a historical record for our community. Ron touched so many lives in the Portland area and beyond. Many current leaders in the LGBTQIA communities were inspired by the Matlovich Society. If Ron influenced your life, we invite you to write an essay about Ron and read a selection at the event. These essays will become part of the Ron McClinton Collection in the LGBT Collection. We would also ask you to contribute any material documenting Ron's life (such as photographs, letters, newspaper clippings). These will be used in a display, and with your permission, added to the McClinton Collection. Help us to remember and honor Ron, as well as building a lasting collection which will empower and inform future generations. The LGBT Collection Annual Open House will be held on Wednesday, June 13th, 5-7pm in the Special Collections facility on the 6th floor of the Glickman Library, USM Portland Campus. For further information, please contact Susie Bock, bocks@usm.maine.edu or 207-780-4269.

June 15 (Friday). Portland. Seventh Annual Portland Dyke March. More information coming soon. See <http://www.mainedykemarch.com/>

June 16 (Saturday). Portland. Southern Maine Pride Parade and Festival. Parade at 12:30, beginning in Monument Square, Festival from 1:00 to 5:00 in Deering Oaks Park. See <http://southernmainepride.org/> for more information.

June 29 – July 1 (Friday - Sunday) West Gardiner. Rainbow Camp (for LGBT Adults). A weekend retreat exploring the Renewing Power of God's Spirit. 7:00 p.m. Friday, June 29, 2012 to 1:00 p.m. Sunday July 1, 2012. This United Church of Christ weekend retreat is an opportunity for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender Christians to gather as a community and reflect upon what it means to engage and sustain a meaningful life with God as an LGBT person of faith. While the current atmosphere in both church and society is more inviting and affirming of LGBT people, the voices against us are still loud and often persuasive. It is no wonder that more people describe themselves as spiritual but not religious, when our religious institutions become tools to maintain the status quo and not catalysts for personal and social change. This retreat will be structured on Brian McLaren's book, Naked Spirituality: A Life With God in 12 Simple Words, which presents a four-stage framework for understanding the spiritual life and highlights spiritual practices appropriate to each stage. Participants will be asked to bare themselves spiritually – stripping away the symbols and status of the Sunday-dress version people often call “organized religion” – and reflect on how to stay true to Jesus's core message while engaging faithfully with our postmodern world. Through scripture, roundtable discussions, worship, and play, we will be assured that God loves us just as God created us. It is hoped that participants will rejoice in God's love during our time together and walk away with a spirit-filled and life-giving understanding of what it means to be a LGBT person of faith in these times. The retreat is open to all who seek spiritual growth, healing, and community among LGBT Christians. Are you ready to be spiritually engaged? Join us! Leader: Rev. Darren L. Morgan. To register: <http://www.pilgrimlodge.org/campdetail.php?cid=43> FMI: dmorgan207@roadrunner.com or 207-944-9469.

June 30 (Saturday). Bangor Pride Parade. 11:00 A.M. "UNITY THROUGH DIVERSITY. IT STARTS WITH US." Is our catch phrase/theme this year!  Parade launching site TBA. Ending at West Market Square, Downtown Bangor  Join QCP as we host the 2nd Annual Bangor Pride Parade! Last year was amazing, and this year will be even bigger and better! IT IS FREE TO ENTER THE PARADE! Bikes, Cars, Walkers, Floats, Posters, Banners, RAINBOWS, GO CRAZY! (... and by crazy, we mean, please keep your clothes on! LOL) This is a FAMILY FRIENDLY EVENT! BIG GIANT AFTER PARTY AT THERAPY LOUNGE!! RSVP today, invite ALL your friends to join us! We can't wait to show Maine that BANGOR has PRIDE! For more information, see <http://www.facebook.com/events/449660888381596/> or contact queencitypride@hotmail.com

Gay Men's Prostate Cancer Support Group: The Maine Coalition to Fight Prostate Cancer has announced the formation of the gay men's prostate cancer support group with an aim to provide a safe place for gay men to share and discuss issues regarding the diagnosis and treatment of prostate cancer. The group is open to gay and bisexual men and their partners and friends. The meeting place will alternate between South Portland and Augusta with even numbered months held at the Cancer Community Center in South Portland and odd numbered months at Maine General Hospital(Conference Room #2) in Augusta, always on the first Tuesday of the month from 6-7:30. The first meeting will take place October 4 at the Cancer Community Ceneter and the next, Nov. 1 at Maine General. For more information please email stuarthunter@comcast.net or mcclenahanbw@gmail.com

Get Out (GO): Get Out connects and supports gay, bisexual & questioning men through educational and community activities. This diverse mix of activities provides alternatives to bars and online hook up sites by drawing attention to the rise in HIV & STD infections, and the importance of establishing and maintaining a visible community. It's a safe and non-judgmental environment for the comfortable exploration of sexual identities. To be included in the monthly GO Email list – send a message to mrobedee@peabodycenter.org with the subject “add me”. Follow us on facebook! (207)871-0216 for more info.

(GLAD) Gay & Lesbian Advocates & Defenders. To learn about and protect your rights under Maine's anti-discrimination law, visit GLAD's website at www.glad.org or call the free legal hotline at 1-800-455-GLAD (1-800-455-4523). GLAD is New England's legal rights organization dedicated to ending discrimination based on sexual orientation, HIV status and gender identity and expression. GLAD's legal victories in Maine have addressed HIV discrimination, harassment of gay students, co-guardianship rights for same-sex parents, domestic partner benefits and more.

The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Collection at the University of Southern Maine is working to capture the history of Maine's LGBT community. We collect papers of individuals and the records of organizations active in the community. Although we mostly collect print material (books, serials, written documents) we collect almost any object that documents the life and experience of the LGBT community (photographs, books, newsletters, objects, posters, T-shirts, buttons, etc). Following professional standards, we are careful to guard the privacy of individuals involved with the collections and will work with donors who choose anonymity. For information on the collection and donating material please contact Susie Bock, 207-780-4269 or books@usm.maine.edu.

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk--it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :) So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups--the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____ " Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

Rubyfruit Cafe. A Maine-based, on-line, lesbian virtual community. Rubyfruit Cafe is a lesbian community magazine designed to showcase our lives, creativity, spirituality, politics, and much more. It is a website that will be driven by your submissions, your music, poetry, videos, photos, and stories. Show us where and how you live (show us your "crib") ... Tell us about your spirituality ... what you think politically and poetically ... sing your song or show us your garden ... share your lives, ideas and hopes with each other. If you find an interesting article, website, product, or new talent, let us hear about it. I want to create a fun, creative, supportive, environment for everyone to relax and just enjoy each other ... to take pleasure in our diversity and talents ... a place of tolerance and celebration. www.rubyfruitcafe.com

THE WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER:

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" or "The FAN" in the subject line). Note that FAN issues often show up in your inbox from thefan@maine.rr.com due to technicalities of the internet.

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTQI (gay/lesbian/bisexual/trans/queer/intersex) community, sent out on the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers the State of Maine only. The list was graciously begun and maintained for many years by Jean Vermette in Bangor. It is now operated by Zack Paakkonen of Portland. It's crept somewhat beyond a social activities newsletter into a business directory, classified ad service, and community bulletin board.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTQI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBTQ and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTQI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTQI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTQI-friendly," then do it! However, outside events (such as holiday fairs, festivals, the local chamber of commerce, etc.) that are not focused on the GLBTQI community and do not have a significant GLBTQI component will not be listed in the FAN.

ARE THERE ANY DEADLINES OR REQUIREMENTS FOR POSTING?

If you want to be sure that your posting will make it into the next issue, please send it to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org no later than four days prior to when the next issue comes out (in other words – three days before either the 1st or the 15th of the month). Although I can try to get a last-minute post into the next issue if you mail it later than my deadline, I can't guarantee it will make it. I accept postings from FAN subscribers only, no obscenity is allowed, and I reserve the right to not include a posting for any reason (although if I do reject a post, I will attempt to let you know the reason).

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTQI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify LGBTQI status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need. Also, listings are posted with information as is submitted to me, and I have no independent knowledge of the accuracy, truth, or falsity of any posts, events, advertisements, job listings, rental listings, etc. Respond at your own risk. Please note also that FAN issues may show up in your inbox as coming from thefan@maine.rr.com instead of from zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org due to technicalities of the internet and the vagaries of your ISP and e-mail program. It's still the same FAN from the same sender.
