AUGUST 15, 2016

NEWSLETTER NEWS, NOTES & REMINDERS:

NOTICE: I am announcing my retirement from the Family Affairs Newsletter after the December 15, 2016 issue. The Health Equity Alliance has stepped forward to offer continuing the content of the FAN into a new resource. This would likely be a newsletter, but may also include a website. When available, I will post information in FAN issues for readers to contact them to subscribe.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

This category is for non-social notices about GLBTQI community members that you think other GLBTQI community members might like to know about...things like: births, deaths, adoptions, commitments, graduations, promotions, awards, shows, ongoing classes, trying-to-start-a-group, etc.

Announcements:

This past month, The Health Equity Alliance unrolled our 2016 LGBTQ+ comprehensive health survey. In order to have a representative statewide sample we need at least 385 responses throughout Maine, from a range of ages, sexual orientations, gender identities, and race/ethnicities, but the more the better! And we want a decent mix of geographic areas to ensure that each county is represented adequately. PLEASE PASS ALONG/FORWARD THE LINK TO YOUR NETWORKS!

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/MaineLGBTQ>

The survey takes roughly 20-25 minutes to complete. All responses are due by September 30, 2016.

Upon completing the survey the respondent's name will be entered into a drawing for $500. Additionally, for each person that you refer to the survey, who completes it, your name will be entered again, increasing your chances of winning. There will be four winners drawn each for $500.

For example, if you complete the survey, and you get three friends to complete the survey your name will be entered into the raffle four times. If your name were drawn two out of the four times you would receive $1,000. Alternatively, you have the option to designate a charity or nonprofit organization to which you would like your incentive donated. The LGBTQ+ Health & Community Survey is part of a comprehensive assessment of LGBTQ+ community health. This survey collects information about Demographics, Family and Community, Health Care and Access to Care, Health Behaviors, Health Status, Mental Health and Social Issues. The results of the survey will help develop a community action plan to guide the QCHA, the Health Equity Alliance's and other organizations work with the LGBTQ+ Community.

The survey is completely confidential, with an anonymous option, and no identifying information will be shared with any outside agencies.

As mentioned above, each person who completes the will have their name entered into a drawing for $500.

There will be four drawings. Additionally, for each person that you refer, that completes the survey your name will be entered 1 additional time, increasing your chances of winning. In order to receive the incentive(s) you will be asked to provide the information necessary to write and mail a check to you. This information will be kept completely confidential and will not be shared beyond the Health Equity Alliance.

EVENTS (CHANGING):

AUGUST

August 25 (Thursday). Ogunquit. Wild & Precious: Benefit for SAGE Maine. The Boston-based, self-described “singing psychotherapist” Steven Cadwell is bringing his one-man show, “Wild & Precious,” to the club MaineStreet in Ogunquit, for a one-night only performance to benefit SAGE Maine. Showtime is 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, August 25. Tickets, $20 in advance, $25 at the door are available at the MaineStreet webpage, and at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/sage-wild-precious-tickets-26700552070> . “Wild & Precious” is a theatrical memoir celebrating the life of Steve Cadwell, a gay man who grew up in rural Vermont. From the moment the curtain goes up until the final bow the audience is riveted on Cadwell’s tale: you’ll cherish the little boy playing with dolls; identify with the adolescent challenges of discovering his sexuality; and witness first-hand the gay experience of the past 60 years: Stonewall; disco; AIDS; freedom to marry; and more are put in a context that’s made real by Cadwell’s vulnerability, authenticity and integrity. This well-tuned roller coaster shoots its riders through tumults, joys, tears, and celebration. Cadwell has preformed the piece at Fenway Health as part of Gay Pride and he’s done it at Prides in New York, San Francisco, Seattle, Vermont, Maine, and Rhode Island. He’s also used the show as a teaching tool for college communities (Amherst College, Brown, Smith, Middlebury, UT Austin) and for clinicians (Mass. Association of Psychoanalytic Psychologist, Elder LGBTQ Caregivers Conference, American Group Psychotherapy Conference). In addition to his private practice, consultation, and performing, Cadwell is a faculty member at Boston University’s School of Social Work and the Harvard Psychiatry Residency Program. OCTOBER

October 7 – 28. Augusta. Pride Film Festival. At the Michael Klahr Center, University of Maine at Augusta, 46 University Drive, Augusta, ME 04330. In honor of LGBT History Month, the Holocaust and Human Rights Center Pride Film Festival encourages discussion and celebration of the LGBTQ+ community in central Maine. The festival begins on Friday, October 7th with the showing of "The Boys in the Band" (1970). Noted as a milestone in LGBTQ+ film history for its unbiased focus on the average lives of American gay men, "The Boys in the Band" features a group of friends enjoying a birthday party until the arrival of some unexpected visitors and a drinking game cause more harm than good. This film is rated R with a run time of 1 hour 59 minutes. The film slated for Friday, October 14th is "Fire" (1996). An Indian-Canadian romantic drama that sparked a dialogue about homosexuality and freedom of speech throughout India, "Fire" was written and directed by Deepa Mehta. Heavily protested at its release in Mumbai in 1998, the movie tells the story of Sita and Radha who find safety from the cruelty of their husbands in each other’s arms. Fire has is unrated with a run time of 1 hour 48 minutes. The film on Friday, October 21st is the powerful documentary "Paragraph 175" (2000). Alongside Jews, gypsies, and other “undesirable” community members, homosexuals were persecuted during the Holocaust. "Paragraph 175" features testimony from several gay individuals, arrested for the crime of homosexuality by the Nazis during WWII in accordance with The German Criminal Code. From May 15, 1871 to March 10, 1994, Paragraph 175 also known as Section 175 stood to criminalize homosexual acts between men; the Nazi regime expanded that law, leading to the imprisonment and death of thousands. This film is unrated with a run time of 1 hour 21 minutes. To conclude the festival, the HHRC will screen "The Danish Girl" (2015) on Friday, October 29th. This Academy Award winning film is based on the true story of Einar Wegener, a young artist who begins the process of transitioning to Lili Elbe after realizing that he has always identified as a woman. Set in the 1930s, "The Danish Girl" tells the story of one of the first people to undergo sex reassignment surgery. This film is rated R and has a run time of 2 hours. The Pride Film Festival is free to attend and open to the public. Refreshments are provided and a viewer discussion will take place after each film. For more information, contact: Holocaust and Human Rights Center of Maine, (207) 621-3530, infohhrc@maine.edu, <http://hhrcmaine.org>

New Beginnings. New Beginnings has served runaway and homeless youth and Maine families in crisis for more than 30 years. Our complete continuum of services provides an essential “safety net” for over 750 youth each year who don’t have stable family support and are at risk of homelessness. New Beginnings offers several trainings, including Creating Safety for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Youth: GLBT youth are a significant percentage of the runaway/homeless youth population, and they face additional challenges in accessing services. Eighty-six percent of gay and transgender youth report being verbally harassed at school and 22 percent have been physically assaulted because of their sexual orientation or gender identity. Schools and youth-serving agencies that are welcoming, supportive, and safe can play a unique role in the lives of these young people.

This one- day training is designed for staff of alternative schools, shelters, residential programs, and drop-in centers that serve runaway/homeless youth. It is an introductory training for staff who have had limited previous training, or who wish to update their skills. For information about this training and others, see <http://newbeginmaine.org/hiv-trainings/>

WEB-BASED MAINE GLBTQI LISTSERVES AND E-MAIL LISTS:

Bisexual Group Online. Bisexuals in Maine and other points north (BINNE). This is a discussion group, NOT a dating group. Located in Yahoo! groups at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/binne> .

Gay Ogunquit. A web resource for LGBTQI residents of or visitors to the Ogunquit area. <http://www.gayogunquit.com/index.php>

Laura's Playground. Transgender Suicide Prevention and Support Site. Jessica writes: I'm a moderator at a transgender suicide prevention and support site. It's a wonderful place with a live chat and lots of information. The chat runs 24 hours a day and I don't remember the last time there wasn't a moderator present. We screen the chatters to make sure we keep out 'admirers' and anyone who might harass. All moderators go thru suicide prevention training thru <http://training.sprc.org> as well as training from the administrators and supervisors. And it isn't only for suicidal individuals, a lot of TGs just go there to chat with people who understand their situation. I personally have found lots of support there and made some great friends. The people there are always willing to help answer any questions someone might have. Maine doesn't have much support to offer to TGs north of Bangor, or even much in Bangor. I just want to make sure that people know that Laura's Playground is around to offer support, answer questions, and help people find the resources they need. You can find it at: www.lauras-playground.com

Maine GayNet Listserve. A long-running listserve for the Maine GLBTQ community which allows members to post notices, opinions, etc. (in a broadcast manner) to everyone else on the listserve. To join the Maine GayNet listserve, go to <http://groups.queernet.org/sympa/subscribe/me-gaynet>

Maine Gay Outdoor Network Events (MEGONE) is a yahoo group site/email list for Maine's GLBT? folks (& friends) for posting announcements of outdoor related events. It's not a formal club or organization--just an informal way to let folks know about outdoor activities that they might like to participate in--whether it's a hike, a paddle, camping trip, nature walk, or even a downtown shopping walk---it's up to you. This is not meant to compete with other groups such as the Chiltern Club--it's just an idea that some of us came up with on a recent trip to Baxter State Park :-). So, if you'd like some company the next time you take a hike, go on a bike ride, paddle, etc., just send an email to megone@yahoogroups.com to let members know the details. To join the group, go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/megone/> Please pass the word along to other gay-related lists/groups--the more people who join, the more opportunities there will be for connecting with like-minded folks for some great outdoor fun. Right now, the membership is "open" to anyone who would like to join....however, if we have any problems with folks who are not gay-friendly, I may change it to a process requiring membership approval. Also, people posting should use discretion regarding publicly posting time/place to meet--you may want to simply say "anyone interested in details, please email me at _____, or call me at _____" Any questions? let me know! (mikeondavispond@yahoo.com)

Maine Lesbians Listserve Anyone who identifies as a lesbian is welcome to join. The website address is: <http://groups.google.com/group/maine-lesbians> Women can request to join from the website or email me: pputnam@mac.com

SAGE Maine creates a virtual drop-in center using a system of telephone connections at scheduled times twice a month. After signing up, participants will receive a call and be invited to chat with others about news, events, information, resources, and topics of local interest. An experienced moderator from SAGE Maine will be on each call to provide basic ground rules of respect and confidentiality as well as to connect individuals with helpful resources and to provide information relevant to older GLBT Mainers. Calls will be scheduled with groups and times forming as participants register. There is no cost for this service and, unless there is a charge for incoming calls, the phone call is toll-free. There are no code numbers to remember. Participants are asked to commit to two months (4 calls) in order to provide group solidarity. Membership in SAGE Maine is not required. To sign up, visit <http://sagemaine.org/virtual-drop-in-program.html>, or call (207) 809-7015.

THE WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, WHY, AND HOW OF THE FAMILY AFFAIRS NEWSLETTER:

All communications to FAMILY AFFAIRS should be sent to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org (Be sure to include the words "family affairs" or "The FAN" in the subject line). Note that FAN issues often show up in your inbox from thefan@maine.rr.com due to technicalities of the internet.

WHAT IS "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

FAMILY AFFAIRS is a free, twice-a-month, social activities newsletter for the GLBTQI (gay/lesbian/bisexual/trans/queer/intersex) community, sent out around the 1st and 15th of each month. It covers the State of Maine only. The list was graciously begun and maintained for many years by Jean Vermette in Bangor. It is now operated by Zack Paakkonen of Portland. It's crept somewhat beyond a social activities newsletter into a business directory, classified ad service, and community bulletin board. Someday, it may also become a website.

WHO CAN SUBMIT NOTICES TO "FAMILY AFFAIRS" ?

Anyone! This is your chance to organize your own activities and get some GLBTQI-family company for those fun and interesting things you'd like to do. Do you want to host a potluck, attend a concert, or have someone to join you on that bus tour to Boston? Are you looking for someone to join you at the hockey or baseball games, for hiking, or to go to that special art exhibit? Are you looking for canoeing, golfing, camping, or fishing partners? This is the best place to look. Think up something fun to do, organize it, and let us know about it....it's easy!

CAN I ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE "EVERYONE" ?

Yes. People who want to organize an activity for the GLBTQ and/or I community are free to set whatever requirements or restrictions they want to on the activity they're organizing. If you want to organize a "women only" camping trip, a "men only" drumming night, a "youth from age 18-24 only" dance, or a day trip to a water park for GLBTQI "couples with children", that would be fine.

CAN I POST A SOCIAL ITEM THAT'S NOT GLBTQI FOCUSED?

But of course! Not everyone who watches women's basketball is a lesbian! If you want to organize an activity around something that is "mostly-straight-but-GLBTQI-friendly," then do it! However, outside events (such as holiday fairs, festivals, the local chamber of commerce, etc.) that are not focused on the GLBTQI community and do not have a significant GLBTQI component will not be listed in the FAN.

ARE THERE ANY DEADLINES OR REQUIREMENTS FOR POSTING?

If you want to be sure that your posting will make it into the next issue, please send it to zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org no later than four days prior to when the next issue comes out (in other words – three days before either the 1st or the 15th of the month). Although I can try to get a last-minute post into the next issue if you mail it later than my deadline, I can't guarantee it will make it. I accept postings from FAN subscribers only, no obscenity is allowed, and I reserve the right to not include a posting for any reason (although if I do reject a post, I will attempt to let you know the reason).

HOW DO I GET ONTO OR OFF THE MAILING LIST ?

Just email me and ask to be put on (or taken off) the list: zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org

CAVEATS:

All newsletters are emailed BCC, and the email list is not given out to anyone. Still, keep in mind that while this newsletter is for the GLBTQI community, not everyone on the mailing list may be a "family" member. People ask to be put on the list and I put them on. There is no interview process or attempt to verify LGBTQI status. It's up to you to behave appropriately for whatever level of anonymity/security you feel you need. Also, listings are posted with information as is submitted to me, and I do not verify them so have no independent knowledge of the accuracy, truth, or falsity of any posts, events, advertisements, job listings, rental listings, etc. Respond at your own risk. Please note also that FAN issues may show up in your inbox as coming from thefan@maine.rr.com instead of from zack@familyaffairsnewsletter.org due to technicalities of the internet and the vagaries of your ISP and e-mail program. It's still the same FAN from the same sender.
