STATE OF MAINE
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
AUGUSTA

SUMNER SEWALL
GOVERNOR

February 12, 1942

Mr. Louis Philippe Gagne, Editor
Le Messenger
225 Lisbon Street
Lewiston, Maine

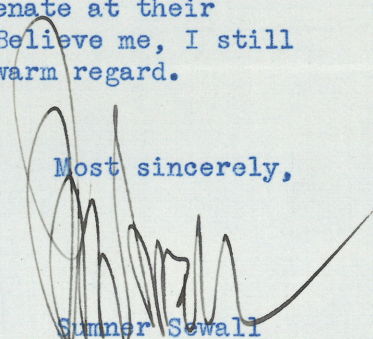

Dear Gagne:

Thank you for your good letter written after you returned from the International Snowshoe Convention in Montreal.

I am delighted to know that the meeting proved so successful, and I am indeed happy that you were able to represent me.

Needless to say, I am also glad to learn that the snowshoers still remember the former President of the Maine Senate at their Sherbrooke convention. Believe me, I still remember them, and with warm regard.

Most sincerely,

Sumner Sewall
