Dear Mrs. Lapointe -

When I mailed you a heavy envelope of facts on early French-Canadian residents of Lew - I thought it cleaned me out of such matters, but, since, I've found the enclosed from Adélard Janelle - on similar topic. You have at Centre d'Héritage my copy of "Fr-Amér. of N. Eng." to which he refers - very valuable book for historical facts on early Lew - Aub. folks.

I still have his copy that I'm retaining to assist me in articles I'm writing for L'Unité. These aren't elaborate, usually stem from some current resident, whose name recalls earlier residents of their family.

I don't plan to write for Journal mag. because articles

There are apt to be much longer.
Too often, they require more information than I have & it's too difficult to obtain such from this distance.

Hope these can be of some advantage to you & your Center.

Charlotte Micaud

This probably means the end of my monologs!

C.M.
