My dear M^r Michaud, your letter was forwarded to me ^{from V} and I do want to tell you what a mighty good sport you were to take my chaffing so good-naturedly. No. I didn't know you were French - if I had, that letter wouldnt have been written. It would be just punishment if you demanded that I translate the article into idiomatic French. Then I'd be embarrassed, indeed!
Indeed I read your article and enjoyed it - I cut it out to preserve and then - to my disgust didnt pack it when I left Weld where I was visiting.

Your "doats" were well founded. Im no school marm. One winter - 1925-26 I was minister in the Weld church, later did missionary work and now am working with little tots in a nursey - The docto "retired" me from my work in Maine because of its excessive demands on my nervous system.

I regret Im no longer where I can get the journal - I liked it very much and of course I would now read every article of yours but not in a search for errors My best wishes are yours in your work. Myrtle Mac Kenzie
