Dear Mr. Rootes:

Congratulations on having been chosen to make a USO overseas tour to the Northeast area. I am sure the students will enjoy the tour as much as the men who are privileged to see their performances.

I am writing this letter to let you know that I will be handling the publicity for the show on behalf of USO. We will make pressbooks which we will send to all the commands where the show will be presented. In order to do this I will need publicity material on the group at least six weeks prior to the departure of the show. I am enclosing a complete list of all the information and pictures we will need.

It is very important that the publicity data reach my office on time as the books have to be printed and mailed and they must be overseas a month prior to your arrival.

Please do not confuse the publicity information with the other papers to be filled out. They are handled by someone else in our office.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

d. A synopsis of the play

e. Information on the college and the group as a whole.

f. Concise biographies of each performer - stating their hometown, schools, theatrical experience, show credits, fraternities, clubs, hobbies, et.

g. A separate list with names and hometowns of each person making the tour.

AGAIN IT MUST BE EMPHASIZED THAT THE ABOVE ITEMS MUST BE RECEIVED BY USO NO LATER THAN SIX (6) WEEKS BEFORE THE UNIT'S DEPARTURE, TO GIVE US TIME TO HAVE THEM PRINTED AND MAILED OVERSEAS.
