January 9, 1948

Mr. James A. McVicar, Chairman,
Democratic State Committee,
South Portland, Maine.

Dear Mr. McVicar:

The Lewiston Chamber of Commerce wishes to extend to the Democratic State Committee a cordial invitation to hold its 1948 convention in Lewiston.

Please be assured that our organization stands ready to cooperate to the fullest extent in order that your stay in our city may be as pleasant and as comfortable as possible. You may expect the same cooperation from our city officials.

Because of its central location and excellent convention facilities, Lewiston has for many years enjoyed the reputation of being the "Convention Center" of the State of Maine.

With best wishes of success in your coming deliberations, I remain,

Very truly yours,

GUY P. LADOUCEUR,
Manager.
