WE'RE BACK AGAIN WITH ANOTHER ISSUE OF YOUR FAVORITE TRIPE-SHEET.....

To start off with...Have you been studying too hard lately? Are you all run down? Do you hear "Dum De Dum Dum" every time you hear an exam? Well don't get Doritol there's nothing wrong with you that a good ole "Johnson Day Dance" won't cure. Don't believe it, huh? Well you just come on out here this coming Friday the 13th at 8:30 P.M. and listen to the music of Jimmie Hanson while you do a waltz or rumba (If you ain't square)

REMEMBER?????? It isn't every dance you can go to and throw your coat any ole place, or gently break your neck on the slippery dance hall floor, or maybe have your best friend sneak off with your bestest girl and maybe screw up your chance to show the others how well you can't dance. ALL JOKES ASIDE, Men (and I use the word loosely) this is the last dance of the year so why not come on out and join in the Hex Day fun.... The Circle "K" is sponsoring this affair and they have done some da..good publicizing for ole PJ....Give them a hand and come on out...They need $52.00 to break even just with the band...Tickets are only $1.00 per couple.....For PJC, the Circle K, the success of this affair (and you yourself) will benefit from your attendance.....$1.00 per couple

SCREECH.....MEOW!.....CAMPUS CAT CALLS IS BACK AGAIN.....JP SMITH

Two be-boppers are watching the changing of the guards at Buckingham Palace.

"Man," says one, "dig that crazy commercial."....Don't like it huh? ....we'll try another..... Two be-boppers are watching a robin trying to pull a worm out of its hole and every time the bird gets the worm almost out it snaps back again into its hole. After seeing this go on for hours one bopper said to the other, "dig that crazy mixed-up bass fiddle."....I quit....."Nevada" Lawrence is back from the wars and he came through it O.K. (Although his insurance man couldn't sleep a wink until "Nevada" was safely home) .....Mr. Johnson (JO) says that he had a theory that "the poor students are the ones who walk on the grass and that the good students are the ones who don't walk on the grass" his theory was shattered by some near-sighted culprit.....Let's knock that stuff off and help keep our grass growing....It looks pretty good.....We are getting in on the campaign to help prevent errors in spelling and grammar....so how about hitting us with a line or two every time we mess up man.....During an exam an instructor was very annoyed at the way his pupils continuously kept looking up at the clock.....he finally covered the clock with a sign which read..."Time will pass, will you?".....That's all the bull this week.... SEE YA ROUND..."#$%&'()+,-./:;<=>?"#$%&'()+,-./:;<=>?"#$%&'()*+,-./:;<=>?

Sure hate to dig an ole competitor but I just got to so I'll just print some letters to the Editors of the Newsance...

LETTERS TO THE ED....CONT'd.....

If the Rag's idea of school spirit is the camouflaged ridicule of a fellow student, then we'd be better off with none at all. It might be high school spirit for fellows to go around the campus braying like donkeys but this is a college and hardly the place for such a show of childishness and stupidity. It's pretty annoying for instructors to have their classes interrupted by hand clapping and that horrible sounding "negative" that seems to be so funny to our younger students (young in mind that is).

I suggest that the Rag Staff take all the paper that would be used for future issues and turn it in to the paper drive and thereby becoming at last an asset to the college instead of a liability.

Ed. Note: Pretty good letter....What do you the Eds. of the Kaput Rag have to say about the above??????????????

Portland, Me.

Dear Editor;

I am writing this letter to you because your paper will be published at an earlier date then that of the "Rag." I believe that the publishers of the "Rag" owe a member of the faculty whom they insulted in their last edition an apology.

The author of "School Spirit" must really feel proud of himself to think that he could by the use of a school paper try to be-little a teacher in the eyes of the students. I do not know the author of this but I was under the belief that the Editor of the Rag was above this type of reporting. The Rag came out on the correct color paper, yellow, for that is what they used, yellow-journalism. The use of sensational reporting and conspicuous display as a means of attracting readers to a newspaper.

As a member of the student body I asked several members of the faculty and several students what they thought of the article. Very poor taste was their reply. I know that I do not want any of my student activity fee to aid this sort of publication and I feel certain that a majority of the students feel the same way.

My sincere thanks to you for keeping your paper an interesting publication instead of a rag.

WELL, there you have it and a couple ex-Editors of the Rag passed by as I was typing those letters in the above paragraph they commented "Why don't the students who wrote those letters sign their names and they also said they would not put an unsigned letter to the Ed. in their Rag".....What's your opinion???? WRITE IN AND LET US KNOW.....We'd like to see the RAG defend themselves.....
