My dear Miss Michaud:

I am enclosing a story for you on the program Ted Shawn is to present at Portland City Hall on May 20 under the auspices of the Wellesley College Club of Western Maine. Since you are one of the three dance editors on newspapers throughout the country, you may have already used this story in the past. If so, will you please let me know, and I will send you another.

Pictures have become so scarce within the last few days, and new ones as yet have not arrived from Shawn, that, in the hope you may have one on hand, I am not sending one. But if you DO need one please let me know and I shall hurry one along to you.

We expect quite a representative group of people from Lewiston-Auburn, since all the dancing teachers there are extremely interested as well as the physical culture teacher at Bates.

Thank you very much for anything you can do for us in the way of publicity.

Most sincerely,

Ruth Tremblay
