My dear Miss Michadd:

We have thought of you many times since you were at the Studio, and wondered when you might be coming again to the city.

How did the travelers enjoy their European experiences ?

And is there any interest , do you think, in my coming to Lewiston ? Or have you anything to suggest that we can do about such a possibility ? I have two appearances scheduled for New York, one at the Y.M.H.A/ and the other at the Brooklyn Museum. In fact I am concentrating on New York in the main, having found conclusively it is the thing to do.

I missed seeing you at Bennington.
