18th July, 1947.

Dear Mr. Mayor,

THE LORD MAYOR OF LONDON has asked me to send you personally a gift copy of a Pictorial Map of London, size 40 inches by 50 inches, which we have recently produced. Sir Bracewell Smith, the Lord Mayor, has written a letter to you which is attached to the copy of the Map. It has been dispatched in a long tubular container, but as it may take some little time to reach you owing to Customs formalities, I thought it advisable to give you this advance warning.

May I take this opportunity of adding the British Travel Association's own greetings to those of the Lord Mayor.

Yours sincerely,

H.S. HYDES.
General Manager.
