HARRIS M. ISAACSON
ATTORNEY AT LAW
LEWISTON, MAINE

September
30th
1930.

Mr. Louis-Philippe Gagne
c/o Le Messenger
Lisbon Street
Lewiston, Maine

Dear Louis,

You are most charitable in your endeavor to equitably distribute just approbation to those that only assisted in a small measure the project of the erection of a new High School.

To you must go, without reservation, well-deserved commendation of such a nature that even those that opposed you should hasten with rapidity to shower their praise on one who so valiantly waged a seemingly futile under-taking, without the expectation of personal gain or glory.

Like yourself, I profoundly hope that the relationship sprung up between us may continue to flow unruffled, ad infinitum.

Sincerely yours,

Harris M. Isaacson
