My dear Miss Michaud -

Just a few lines to say "thank you very much" for my nice write-up.

I think that you did an excellent "job" and I have received a lot of compliments in recognition of it. As a matter of fact - it was really quite flattering and I have had some difficulty find it quite worth your while.

I have been rehearsing very hard since my return and tomorrow will find me back on the stage again - it always seems much harder after a vacation but I repeat - I still love it.

Hope you are enjoying the nice spring weather - the same as we have here and "thanks once again."

Sincerely -
Virginia Wallace

in making my hats fit - ever since reading it. I think it is very nice that you & your paper still takes an interest in me after all these years.

I do hope that you will be able to take a trip to N.Y. soon and that you will stop by the stage door & say "hello" to me.
Should you be interested I would be only too glad to take you on a tour through the Music Hall & I feel sure that you will
