NARRAGANSETT BREWING CO.
ELMWOOD STATION
PROVIDENCE, R.I. U.S.A.

10 March 1949

The Honorable Louis P. Gagne
Office of the Mayor
City Hall
Lewiston, Maine

Dear Mayor Gagne:

We understand that you are planning a visit to Providence in the near future to bring down the St. Dom's Booster Club Hockey Team, who will participate in the New England Hockey Tournament at the Rhode Island Auditorium 17, 18, 19 March. We understand, also, that Mayor R. L. Halle will accompany you.

We would be greatly honored and pleased if you and Mayor Halle with a party of thirty five or forty of your friends could find time to visit with us here at our brewery, go through the plant, and to have a snack luncheon.

We wish that we could have a larger party, but at the present time our facilities are such that we cannot adequately take care of more than forty at the outside.

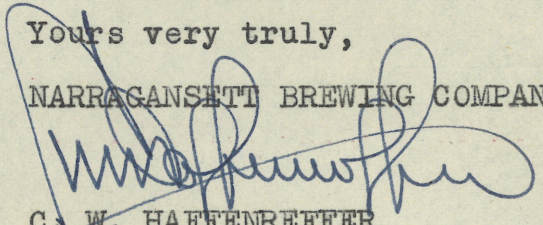

As Lewiston and Auburn have both been great boosters of Narragansett for many years, we sincerely hope that you will find it possible to accept our invitation. If you do so, would you please ask your secretary to let us know if Friday noon is convenient and how many we can expect at that time.

We are writing a similar letter to Mayor Halle and I presume that you and he can collaborate in drawing up the list of guests that you will bring with you.

With a hearty Hi, Neighbor! to all our good friends in Lewiston,
I am

Yours very truly,

NARRAGANSETT BREWING COMPANY
