The first general meeting of the Macabee Club was called to order at 7:00 at the home of Steve Burns. The treasurer's report was given and accepted. The first order of business was to swear in the new freshmen. They are Stephen Burns, brother of that up-and-coming politician from Maine; Paul Aranson, the club's own Ringo Starr; Gary Berenson, determined to break his brother's fine record; Norman Feder, Billy's little brother; Charles Atlas Howard Singer; and that playboy from way back - Benny Brem. Another freshmen Ricky Diamon was not present. Steve Burns was an overwhelming favorite to speak to the one-and-only Bob Mack about new jackets. The new telephone committee was formed. Howard Singer as head, Norman Feder, and Paul Aranson. As there was no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Richard informed us that we were to participate in the local Alsac Drive as a club in conjunction with center youth. A chairman and sixteen boys were chosen to be on the drive. Advisors were discussed; Jim Freundlich, and Chuck Stone ^{and Ken Schilling} said they would ask their fathers. Next week we are having a joint meeting with RCV to discuss our dance coming up soon. As there was no further business and Lew decided to have a hootenany the meeting was adjourned.

The meeting was called together at the home of Ben Brem at 11:00. Secretary's and treasurer's reports were given and accepted. Jim Freundlich announced that his father would be an advisor again this year. Ken Schilling and Chucky Stone will let us know next week if their fathers can. Richard told the boys from Lewiston and Auburn that there are many adds to be collected up there. There are still a few from Portland too. We adjourned the meeting to hear Lew's three new smash hits. Later we went to Ilene Clowitch's home for the joint meeting with R.C.V. After much debating we decided to call our dance The Levi Leap with Oldies but Goodies. Everyone was to bring their favorite records and we would play them on the Hi-Fi on the fifth floor. The price would be thirty-five cents. As there was no further business the meeting was adjourned.

The meeting was called to order at Steve Lewis' house at 11:00. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were given and accepted. It was noted that Howard Krantman still owed the club fifteen dollars. Howard reported that to have the Castland Motor Hotel for our formal it will cost $7.50 plus $1 per person plus $15 a tray of food. We decided to look into a catering service for food rather than spend the $15 per tray. We still didn't have the emblems from B. Mack so Mark Aranson is to see him this week. The club decided to go to a Celtic game either January 17 or 24. Everyone is to bring $4 next week for his ticket. Alvin Mack, a freshman, was brought up and voted into the club. As there was no further business, the meeting adjourned.

The meeting was called to order at the home of Chuck Stone at 11:00. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were given and accepted. The first order of business was to collect the $4 from each member who wanted to go to the Celtic game January 24. As there were so few who remembered their money, we decided to wait another week to send for tickets. The club will not be purchasing banners this year since there is a minimum order of 72 at a time. Alvin Mack was sworn into the club. We decided to go to services this coming Friday night since we haven't gone for over a month. The club sweatshirts finally arrived, and although they were changed a little (for the worse) we realized that nothing could be done about it. As no business remained, the meeting was adjourned.

For future plans the club decided to go to a Bowdoin hockey game sometime next winter. There was a big argument over giving fines during a relatively calm discussion. The club decided that this should still be left up to the discretion of the President and the warden. As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.

We worked 'til about noon when Goodman's closed and netted about six and a half dollars. We decided we should have another drive Saturday November 21.

At 9:30 members of the club were patiently waiting for the Congdon Truck to arrive. Meanwhile since 9:00 Howard Krantman & Chick Levine were finding a driver for the truck since, we found that morning, he had to be 18. We decided to finally do something legally so Howard & Chick woke up fraternal brother, Harvey Silverman who was more than glad to help. The truck finally arrived at Caled St. about 10:00, and after waiting for the rest of the kids to come.

took off for a day of work. At 1:30 the truck filled with paper, bottles, and bras rolled into Goodman's; about an hour and a half later it left leaving Goodman in a shamble and Buddy Goodman with an ulcer. After all that paper, etc was unloaded we got $2. Later the bottles were turned in for another $3. Money-wise the drive was not as successful as hoped, but everyone who went enjoyed themselves.

The meeting was called to order at the home of Ken Schilling at 11:00. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were approved as read. Howard reported that the club can get Holiday Inn for $0 per tray of food and nothing for the room. The man at Holiday Inn told us that 5 or 6 trays would be enough for the number of people we expect. The club decided to have a Hammer this year. Alan Zimmerman was made chairman; Ben Breen is writing up the Freshman class, Sam Norick is writing up the Sophomore class, David Vinick the Junior class, Neal Stillman the Senior class, Howard Krantman the Alumni, and Ron Blumenthal Club activities. We are going to have a club party during Christmas vacation either at the Feders' or a Steve Lewis'. Elis Greenstein, a Senior, was voted into the club. The meeting was called to order at 11:00 o'clock at the home of Neal Stillman. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were approved as read. Two copies of the flyers for the coming Bermuda Bop were submitted by the flyer committees and the club decided that ideas from each one should be incorporated into one good one. We decided that the price of admission would be sixty-five cents. Phil Levine noted that he thought the treasury had enough money on hand to reimburse each member one dollar who payed for a Celtic ticket for the coming game. We decided, however, to table the idea until after the Bop. As no business remained, the meeting adjourned.

There was no meeting this day 'cause it was the day of the long-awaited Celtic Game. There was a snowstorm raging at the time of departure and so all the parents chickened out except that famous pioneer Mr. Sidney Levine. His car, along with Phil Levine's, made the long trek to Boston. The only boys to go were Chick Levine, Sam Novick, Phil Levine, Howard Krantman, and Steve Lewis. At the last moment Scott Jacobson was asked from the trip by his dad. David Vinick met us there at halftime. It was a great game - the Celtic's winning easily over the Lakers. The day was a complete success since we got our $8 in extra tickets back.
