Dear Charlotte:

Was I surprised when I saw my current picture in the Journal, was nobody's business —

I got a great kick out of the write-up. Don't remember being such a naughty child. We cut it out to save it.

The only thing I didn't like was that the picture was taken 25 yrs ago, & on the picture I look about 8 — 10 now, that would make me 33 yrs old. Hope my old sweaters don't figure it out — what? All joking aside it was a clever little write-up, real newsy —

Delightful weather down here, and am working like hell. Hope I make my first million soon - Am enclosing me of our weekly paper. As you see Ampton is trying hard to compete with the Boston Herald -

This has been a busy week -
We had people from Seattle Washington, Minneapolis Minn, N. J.
Conn. Illinois, P. D. N. Y. City and Vermont - none from Maine thus far - Last year had some from Waterville only - Went in bathing for 10 minutes, this A. M. told my help I'd hang back & forgot myself & staying in the water one hour & fifteen minutes.
Was doing to-day as Bud was in Boston & I knew he wouldn't be here to dictate

So much for that - Hope you & your mother are well & I must leave in a party of 8 just coming for tea. Glad I got your letter started for I don't know when I'll get back to the desk again.

Yours
Fette
