PART 1: Nature of Project

Centre d'Heritage Franco-Américain
Project Title, if any

1. Description and objectives of project. (Can it be carried out by existing staff? If not, what outside resources or expertise will be required? Define what will be accomplished with the financial assistance given by the Commission. Is this to be a long-range undertaking? If so, describe that part of the project which you can guarantee will be completed by June 1, 1973

The prime objective is to complete the task originated by the Centre that is a complete and through Resource Center. Numerous artifacts and memorabilia have been located but professional assistance is needed. The Professional assistance must be Canadian as well as American to verify data. Suggested Canadian assistance is M. Luc Lacombe, Les Archives de folklore de L'université Laval, Quebec and Dr. William Roach, an authority in French language and customs from Penn State. Dr. Roach has assisted in seminars in Paris as well as the United States thus adds a total aspect to the resource center.

The unique aspect of the Centre is that it is an organization for the Franco American, reinforced by the Canadian expertise, guided by an American with French credentials (Sorbonne) and a curio for non Franco-Americans
