WEEKLY CALENDAR
IN BRIEF

SATURDAY, MARCH 27
8 p.m. - Senior Class Dance, gym

MONDAY, MARCH 29
7:30 p.m. - Great Books Club Meeting, Room 100, Student Union

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31
8 p.m. - Circle K Dance, gym
2 p.m. - Chess Match, UMP vs. DHS

SATURDAY, APRIL 3
8 p.m. - Businessmen's and Owls and Eagles dance, gym.

UMP STUDENT SPIRIT COMMENDED

Judy Derocher, the UMP Campus Mayor, has just received letters from President Elliott and Trustee Arthur Benoit commending the spirit of the UMP student body.

President Elliott wrote in part: "I want to acknowledge on behalf of the entire University community the birthday greeting which you delivered to me upon the occasion of the Centennial Convocation here in Orono." "The fact that so many people could sign the birthday greeting after it had been designed indicates the sincerity with which the birthday card was constructed.

I was deeply appreciative of the sentiment which the card reveals and I know the Trustees of the University are as proud as I am of the wonderful spirit in the student body at the Portland Campus."

Trusted Benoit, after thanking Judy for the decorated birthday cake which Judy brought from the UMF Centennial party to Mrs. Benoit at the hospital, wrote: "From all reports I receive there is great reason for all of us to be very proud of the student body at the University of Maine in Portland, particularly the leadership. "I take great pleasure in hearing all of the wonderful reports of your mature interest and activities."

STUDENT SENATE

Seventy-nine returned questionnaires are in the process of being analyzed. The student survey will be reported at a later date.

What are the social rules of other colleges? The committee on the University's handbook revisions has sent letters to commuter colleges throughout the country in order to get some ideas on what other colleges have used in their social rules. The results will be considered by the handbook revisions committee.

There has been no decision about the purchase of park benches or whether the university will pay for senior graduation invitations.

The Student Senate did decide to sponsor a Maine Day Outing. You'll be hearing more about it later. Have you been thinking about a new mayor? Papers will be out April 15 for mayor candidates.

What do you think about paying our Student Senate President? The Orono president gets $100 for the job and other organization presidents get paid also. It's certainly an incentive to the president and his program. Don't be surprised if our Student Senate puts forth a referendum for voting before the students. The Senate would like to have some opinions from the student body and future president candidates.

FINE ARTS THEATER

Sophia Loren, Marcello Mastroianni FOR THE FRESH

The highest non-scholastic honor attainable for a student at the University of Maine is membership in the sophomore Owls and Eagles. The deadline for the applications for next year's Owls and Eagles has been extended to Friday, March 26, at 3 p.m. to allow those freshman who have not yet found the time to apply for these organizations. So remember, freshman, Friday at 3 p.m.

NOTICE - Any student interested in having a navy blue University blazer, please contact either Tom Peterson or Dottie McGowan.
INSIDE SPORTS
with Walt Abbot

As of last Friday the standings of the intramural league were as follows:

1. Honeymakers 4-0
2. Junkies 3-1
3. Unquenchables 3-1
4. Humpers III 3-1
5. Faculty Flabs 3-1
6. Judges 2-2
7. Tee-Holes 2-2
8. Dave DeTore 5 0-4
9. Rolling Stones 0-4
10. Frosh 0-4

This encompasses the first four weeks of the season. Including the present week there are three weeks of action remaining.

Last weeks results:
Faculty Flabs 99
Junkies (Coleman) 89
Honeymakers (Abbot) 60
Judges (Hazard) 42
Unquenchables (Tarkington, Eastman) 151
Dave DeTore Five (DeTore) 39
Tee-Holes (Cushman) 96
Rolling Stones (Lebreque) 30
Humpers (Gorham, Watson) over Frosh (Fendexter)

The featured game was the Faculty's stirring win over the Junkies. This game went into two overtimes and was by far the most exciting game to date. The Junkies led by 18 points in the third quarter when the Faculty Flabs started to come on like the Marines; Everything they threw up seemed to find the net. The Junkies began to get a little nervous at this point, and quickly put in their regulars. However, O. Graham, A. Roper, and M. Hector by this stage of the game had numerous fouls. They fouled out, and the replacements didn't have the height to contend with Pease and Callendar. Due to the ability of F. West, the Junkies managed to force an overtime after a tremendous jump shot by W. Callendar tied it up in regulation time. F. West scored 30 plus points as he was superb in running the ball club almost to victory. Fred is at his best when he can control the ball. W. Callendar and A. Pease with help from F. Callendar proved their worth in the latter stages of the game. A. Pease threw in two clutch foul shots in one of the overtimes. The Faculty Flabs proved their strength in this terrifically exciting contest.

Save Many Lives

The Pe-1-ders

Last week marked the conclusions of the intramural season. But the scores (which were placed with great diligence and care upon the bulletin board in the gym) disappeared mysteriously over the weekend and as they can't be published in this column.

Nevertheless, I distinctly remember that Morrison's Mets outhit Chenard's Cardinals to the tune of three wins and one loss. This was the first instance where D. Morrison's team overcame R. Chenard's team in a tournament. With due respect to D. Pendexter, had the Fresh defeated the Unquenchables I would not have been more surprised.

Right now the Pe-1-ders are engaged in the second series of indoor relays. This pleasant (or not-so-pleasant) interlude between indoor and outdoor softball gives everybody a chance to bone up for the physical efficiency tests in May. These final examinations determine whether or not the student will have the opportunity of taking gym in his sophomore year. Out of a 700-point total, each person must earn 350 points to pass the course. Bulging muscles and sweaty gym suits reflect the desire of every Pe-1-der to be like Charlie of the N.T.A. when they said 'he never returns; ne, he never returned...'.

—Ed Knowles

Save Many Lives

There will be an American Red Cross Senior Life Saving Course available to UMP students and faculty at the Y.M.C.A. from 10 a.m. to 12 noontime, April 6 to 29. Jeff Weinstien will be the instructor and asks that you see him for further details.

INTRAMURAL SCHEDULE
March 24—April 6

Wed. Humpers III vs Faculty Flabs
Thurs. Rolling Stones vs Fresh
Fri. Unquenchables vs Tee-Holes
Mon. Tee-Holes vs Fresh
Tues. Faculty Flabs vs Rolling Stones

UMPus Staff

Editor — Mary Durdan
Ass't Ed. — Jean Dickson
Reporters — Judy O'Toole, Sally Butterworth, Jean Scanlan, Mike Carey
Sports — Walt Abbot
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

In Regards to a Salary

To the Editor:

Ever since it became popular knowledge that various student leaders in Orono receive compensation for their efforts out of pocket, we have been considering adopting a similar policy in Portland for the office of Senate President. We feel that in addition to the obvious financial assistance a plan of this nature would provide, it would provide an increased incentive for becoming Senate President as well as a desire to devote more time and energy to the position. All programs such as these, of course, have their negative side. The student body will be kept informed through the Senate minutes, the UMPus reporter and various other publications as to the progress of this idea.

Robert Silva
Student Senate President

VACATION'S COMING UP

Crying in your beer cause you can't make it to Florida next week a la Paul Riley and Dick Derrah? Thinking longingly of being in New York, but without the funds to take advantage of it? Or maybe Bermudâ catches your fancy. Did you think that UMP would let you stagnate for the whole week? Well, almost....

Saturday, March 27, the Senior class will hold a dance in the gym. Music will be provided by the Nomads.

Wednesday, March 31, Circle K will hold a dance in the gym.

And just in case you might like to dance or something, on Saturday, April 3, the Businessmen and the Owls and Eagles will join forces to hold a, you guessed it, a dance in the gym, with a band from Massachusetts.

Then there's always that Circle K Convention in Hartford, Conn... for those fortunate Circle K members chosen to attend.

Then the unmentionable things like term papers, etc. The mentionables like sleep, friends, sleep, rest, sleep, parties, sleep.

In any case whether you're here or away, have a nice vacation.