MADELINE S. POLLARD
ARTHUR MURRAY'S STUDIO
7 EAST 43RD STREET

Sept. 17, 1937

Dear Miss Michaud,

This is the first opportunity I have had to write and tell you how very delight Mr. Good and I were with the article. The story was swell, and laid out most beautifully. I bought s eads of copies to send to my friends, and they are all terribly impressed. So, in fact, was Mr. Murray. He thought the whole thing grand, and was pleased about the publicity.

We returned to New York last week, after an excellent season, and are looking forward to coming back to Maine next year. At that time I shall look you up, and tell you again how much we thank you for your efforts on our behalf.

Cordially yours,

Madeline Pollard
