Last Day of School

Miss Olive M. Lyford, conducts her last class at Jordan school.

Miss Olive M. Lyford, teacher for 26 years in Lewiston schools, spent her last day with her classes at the Jordan school, Thursday. Having reached the age limit for Lewiston teachers, Miss Lyford is being retired this June. Graduation at the school is Friday morning.

Recently Jordan school teachers gathered and presented her with a set of door chimes which were installed at her home.

A graduate of the Dingley training school, Miss Lyford taught 15 years at Waterbury, Conn. before returning to Lewiston. For several years she taught at the Main street school and recently has conducted seventh and eighth grade history classes at the Jordan school.
