"THE PLACE TO BE IN 93"

For the 20th year, lesbians, gay men and bisexuals in Maine will gather to celebrate ourselves, to play and to learn. Unity College's small campus which is in a rural setting allows us to create our own community for a weekend.

Keynote Speakers

Joan Nestle - of New York, founder of the Lesbian Herstory Archives and winner of the American Library Association 1988 Gay/Lesbian Book Award. Saturday night 7:30 pm. Cost of $10 to those not registered for Symposium.
John Calvi - A renowned healer and workshop leader from Vermont.

Celebrating Our Own Panel Discussion

Workshops

2 intensive workshops, 2 sessions each

- "Finding Intimacy in the Age of AIDS" for men only with John Calvi.
- Workshop for women with Joan Nestle participating.

Several other workshops on many varied topics, from political to personal, educational to entertaining.

Fun and Games

Saturday night dance, lip synch contest, board games, nature walk, time for socializing. Also on-going competitive and non-competitive sports - volleyball, softball (bring your own glove), touch football, basketball - sorry, but no tennis.

Housing

There are three options:

- 1) Dormitory rooms (all doubles) available on campus. You must supply your own bedding and towels. Rooms cost $14 per night /person
- 2) A few tent spaces are available for those who wish to camp on campus. $5 fee (No firespermitted)
- 3) Limited housing is available in the homes of local lesbians and gay men.

Meals

All meals will be prepared and served in the Unity College Dining Hall. They all include Vegetarian selections. Meals will be served from Friday supper through Monday lunch.

Accesibility

Unity College may be negotiable by some people who use wheelchairs and all events will be held in accessible locations. Although some modifications have been made, the campus is not completely accessible. Please call or write for details.

- People needing sign language interpretation, or a taped program, (we may be able to help with other needs) must let us know by May 1.
- For free on-campus childcare, please contact us by May 1.
