The guest speaker for our assembly today will be Mrs. Horace A. Hildreth, wife of Mr. Horace A. Hildreth, former Governor of the State of Maine and former United States Ambassador to Pakistan.

The International Relations Club of the University of Maine in Portland made the necessary arrangements to have Mrs. Hildreth speak to us today.

It is certainly an honor to have such a distinguished speaker. Her talk should be very interesting.

Auction Success

The auction that the Senior Class held turned out very successful for them. The proceeds amounted to over $100.00 that is to be used for the Senior Class Banquet.

A special hand should be given to Jerry LaFlent, Ralph Lynchburner, Benny Benson, Leo Gain, John Baggs, and all the other men who did so much to make the Auction the success it was.

The pastries and cakes provided by the wives and mothers of students were delicious and made the auction a big hit.

The Circle K Club will sponsor the 5th annual presentation of the Beavers Ball. The gala event will be held in the U.P. Gym on 19 April from 8:30 - Midnight. Tickets will cost $1.50 per couple.

The theme for the Beavers Ball this year will be The Roaring 20's. Some of the students will remember the fabulous costumes that turned up last year. It will be very interesting to observe how many flapper dresses and how many raccoon coats appear. Hope the band can play the Charleston.

The Board Contest is in full swing and it's hard to recognize some of the students now. The prize for the best board will be a razor; then we'll see some familiar faces again.

Get your tickets early and plan to come dressed like a relic from the roaring 20's. If you can't find a costume come anyway. There's going to be lots of fun for everyone. No knows, maybe Charlie will sing, "Poor Little Joe" again...
