12 present

Chairperson, Vice c., and Sec. present.

- I. decided to rule out Robert's Rules of Order for evening in order to discuss informally some less important business.

the following were discussed and/or decided upon:

- a. Virgil will supply stereo for dance.
- b. Will pay Unitarian Church $10 for past dance.
- c. Jack Towle will change info on G.S.A. meetings in Abnaki calendar.
- d. Mark Johnson will be representative of G.S.A. at M.C.A.
- e. Pay Joe York three dollars for sign supply's, which will be transposed to his donation.
- f. Jack Towle, among others, will look into legal aspects of gays i.e. local, state, federal.
- g. Discussion of whether or not to hire a lawyer to research laws: Tabled.
- h. Mailbox will be purchased as soon as hassle with treasury is straightened out.
- i. discussion of gay library. The first book, "Society and the Healthy Homosexual", was donated by John Sayward of the Boulder Gay Activists Alliance.

- II. John Sayward showed up and spoke about ways which we could change laws quietly, conscience-raising, and fund raising. He spoke highly of the movie "The Invisible Minority", also of the book I Had More Fun With You Than Anyone, by Jack Baker. He suggested we contact Hollingsworth, the head of the Distinguished Lecture Series, about getting gay speakers. Offered to also speak at the Wilde-Stein Club at the University.

John, after speaking about the attributes of a good library, and discussion of his, donated out first book.

His address is:

III: other misc. business.

a. Idea of starting to receive good gay publications such as Advocate, Amazon Quarterly, among others. No outcome.

b. Jack Towle was assigned parliamentarian.

c. Joe York brought up idea of stopping the long, drawn out business meetings and having maybe 1/2 hour - hour meetings, which would be followed by socializing and/or informal discussions. Everyone fairly much agreed, except Jack Towle. We decided to adjourn the meeting and present the idea at next meeting.

IV: After meeting we all took turns, three at a time, painting the new sign for the front of the church. It said "Gay Support and Action." Came out good.
