WONDED IN ACTION

PFC ELISEE A. DUTIL, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Dutil, 17 Bartlett Street, Lewiston, has been seriously wounded in Italy on Oct. 15 according to word received by his parents. They have been notified he is recovering slowly. He has since been evacuated to a North African hospital.

This is the second time Pvt. Dutil was wounded in action. He was wounded less seriously during the Sicilian campaign. At that time his wounds were confined to the right leg. At that time he was awarded the Purple heart.

Pvt. Dutil has been in the service since June 1942. He received his training at Fort George Meade, Md., and was transferred overseas in
