VARIETY SHOW WED

There will be a Variety Show Wednesday, 19 March, in the auditorium featuring the Tops in Talent from UMP.

Don Chenard's Octet will present two arrangements, "Linger Awhile" and "Sweet Kentucky Babe". This singing group formed about two months ago. This is the first opportunity the group has had to perform at an assembly. Members of the Octet are:

JOHN MITCHELL
LEO DANIELS
ROBERT SWET
FRANK MORRISON
PETE LAY
DANA DUDLEY
DON RUMERY
DON CHENARD

Two troubadours, Jack Arsenault and Bruce Littlefield will team up on guitar and banjo for three numbers. Jack Arsenault will sing and play "Mountain Dew" and "You Win Again" backed up by Bruce Littlefield and his Banjo. Littlefield will also play a banjo solo, "Waiting for the Sunrise".

Berry on drums and Smith on piano will present an arrangement by the Earl of Garner. The Octet will close the program with, "Sweet Cider Time".

Master of Ceremonies will be Mr. John F Jaques.

FRESHMAN PICTURES

All members of the Freshman Class will have their picture taken for the Yearbook. Be sure to wear a coat and tie Wednesday 19 March.

There has been some difficulty in past years to get the freshmen pictures. Don't be reluctant to have your picture taken because you're not a Senior. These pictures form a very important part of the STAG so let's not hold up publication. Get your picture taken Wed.

WANTED: Suggestions

Mr. John F. Jaques is planning an Assembly for Wednesday March 26th. Anyone have any suggestions as to what they would like the Assembly to be? Any worthwhile suggestion will be considered. You all have ideas, they may be unique or maybe repeat ideas. Let Mr. Jaques know what your suggestion is for an Assembly.

International Relations Club will present a Radio Program Wednesday Evening over Radio Station WGAN. This is the first Radio Program for the newly formed International Relations Club. Faculty Advisor for the Club is Mr. Phil Cole. The exact time the program is to be on will be posted on the Bulletin Board.

SPORTS

Baseball practice starts 24 March. The tennis balls our future stars have been carrying around are to help get them in shape for our nations number one sport.

The Basketball Team will leave for Vermont to participate in the Maple Festival. The team will be gone Thursday and Friday, and will participate in a small college tournament.
