MISS MADELEINE GIGUERE—Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Giguere of Lewiston, will give one of two toasts at the communion-breakfast of St. Peter's and St. Paul's guilds, Sunday morning, at the Lewiston parochial school. Maurice Parent, also of this city, will give the other. Miss Giguere, a sophomore at Lewiston high school, has just been elected secretary of the Vikings club there, and she is also active in the debating club.

Communion-Breakfast Program for Guilds

About 150 boys and girls are expected to attend the annual Communion-breakfast of St. Peter's and St. Paul's guilds, Sunday, after attending the 7.45 o'clock Mass in SS. Peter and Paul church. Miss Juliette Chaput and Roland Forgues are co-chairmen of this event, Raymond Nadeau is in charge of tickets, and Miss Therese Gendron will serve as accompanist for general singing.

Mayor Edmond J. Lambert of Lewiston will be the only guest at the breakfast, and the toasts will be given by Miss Madeleine Giguere whose subject will be the United States, Lewiston, Lewiston high school, and St. Paul's Guild, the latter being formed by boys of SS. Peter and Paul parish who attend LHS; and by Maurice Parent, vice president of St. Paul's Guild, whose subject will be the Pope, the bishop of Maine, the pastor of SS. Peter and Paul parish, and St. Peter's guild, the latter counterpart of St. Paul's Guild.

Sunday night, credit awards to students who have satisfactorily completed a season of study in religious education, will be distributed by Most Rev. Joseph Edward McCarthy, D.D., bishop of Maine. Rev. Jean-Paul Cossette, O. P. directs both St. Paul's and St. Peter's guilds.
