NEWSANCE

Mrs Leighton has outlined a procedure for Psychology students using reference material for their Term Papers. Take only three books at a time. Keep them only three days and return them promptly. Consider the other fellow. You could be the one who gets left out. Everyone has noticed the swell job Mrs. Leighton is doing, let's co-operate.

Mrs. Spallholz will host the Longhair Club Sunday, 16 Feb 58, 4 P.M. at her home 111 Williams St., City. The latest get together produced a very entertaining evening for about 10 members. If your taste includes anything from longhair music to the art of Ju Jitsu you should have a very enjoyable time. New membership is encouraged. Anyone interested should contact Page Safford or any Club member. Perhaps your conversation could add to the success of this Club.

This was overheard: It takes six years for a Veterinarian to work on a sick pig but in only four years a teacher can work on a child's mind.

The Posters you see on the Bulletin Board pertaining to the Winter Carnival and the Cartoon Contest are the fruits of the labor of Richard J. Kendall. This lad has school spirit.

Can you doodle? Everyone does it. Try it and place your endeavors in the Cartoon Contest. You may win a free ticket to the WINTER CARNIVAL. The rules are few and simple. Subject must be on winter sports and be identified in some way as U.M.P. material.

Fried Clam Supper at Conora's 21 Mar 58. When it comes to a Fried Clam Supper where else but Conora's. The clams you eat there slept the last night in Casco Bay. They're delicious. ASSEMBLY 10 A.M.

There will be a brief assembly this morning at 10 A.M. sharp. Following dismissal you should meet with your assigned Counselor and fill out a short questionnaire. It is important that we meet at 10 O'Clock sharp.

The annual Winter Carnival of the University of Maine in Portland will be held this year on the 21st, 22nd, and 23rd of February. The event is being sponsored by the University Outing Club and the Student Council. They have chosen for their theme Cartoon Carnival.

Festivities begin Friday afternoon, the 21st, with snow sculpturing on the school grounds. The snow sculpturing will be judged Saturday and a trophy for the winner will be awarded at the Coronation Ball. A Sleigh Ride beginning at 7 P.M. from the North Yarmouth Grange Hall comes next. This is followed by a Plaid Shirt Dance with live music provided by Don Gordon's Orchestra. Saturday night the Queen of the Carnival will be crowned at the Coronation Ball which is being held in the College Gym. Music will be that of the Nate Gold Orch. The Outing will take place Sunday. Tickets are $2.00 per couple. This includes your entertainment for the entire weekend. Let's make the Winter Carnival a big success.
