The Nevember 28 meeting of GAY SUPPORT AND ACTION

GROUP was called to order by Chairperson Karen Bye.

Sturgis Haskins read the minutes of the last meeting Secretary in the absence of David McMannis who had resigned because he was meving to Besten. Twelve people were present.

The fellewing business was transacted:

- 1. Sturgis Haskins annual dues were veted paid in exchange for a $3.70 notebook he had purchased for GSA.
- 2. It was decided that the savings account would be replaced with a checking account.
- 3. It was suggested that the Treasurer should muni given the Secretary a menthly accounting of expenses for his records.
- 4. Sturgis Haskins was elected Secretary Pro Tom. Karen Bye appointed a Norminating Committee to consider a new Secretary. After a brief caucus David Perkins and John Frank were chosen as nominees. The Secretary Pro Tem, in accountance with the By-laws will mail out notices of an election in two weeks.
- 5. The Wednesday, December 26 meeting was cancelled.
- 6. The Treasurer reported $60.74 in the Treasury.
- 7. Beb Majer reperted on his visit to a Terente gay group. He enjoyed himself very much.
- 8. Sturgis Haskins reported on the fellowing:
 - a. He had teaked with a Banger News person about them printing a lew-key article on the group.
 - b. Someone in Hancock County had expressed interest in reviving that group as a purely social organization.
 - e. The Unitarian Church Sunday discussion group rap fer the past two Sundaysm had gone extremely well.
 - d. The cost of mailing the announcements out had been about $6.00
 - e. He had put an ad in the Maine Times as GSA had veted some time age.
- 9. The meeting adjourned to an informal discussion on various matters.

Respectively,

5#