March 18, 1947

Dear Louis;

I had hoped to be at the inauguration yesterday to wish you Godspeed on your new responsibility as Mayor, but in my business one can't plan on anything. I had appointments that I wasn't able to cancel.

Needless to say, I do want to wish you all the luck and success in all you undertake to do in the future. The road won't be smooth and easy. At times you'll have to make decisions that will bring criticism from all sides, but if you believe that you are in the right, make your decision with that in mind.

Remember me to the Boys and also let me say this, don't you forget your Boys.

In closing, I again wish you success and Godspeed,

Sincerely,

Bill
