78 Androscoggin Ave.
Lewiston, Maine,
May 2 . 1948,

My Dear Mayor Gagne,

I am a student at Jordan Grammar School in Lewiston. Recently the girls of the seventh and eighth grades formed a softball team under the direction of Mr. Maschadri, our science teacher. Ever since we formed the team we have been looking for a field to play ball in. This doing has been to no avail. Why can't we have all the things that children of our ages in other cities have?

Even our boy's baseball team hasn't a place to practice and play. All we are asking for is a field to play our baseball and softball games.

I hope you will consider our request.

Sincerely Yours
Connie Conzley
and the members of the Jordan Softball Team.
