Mrs Charlotte Michaud
Leiston, Maine

My dear Mrs Michaud:

May I Congratulate you on your most interesting article published in the Journal section of last Saturday's paper. I am afraid, I am somewhat late but in the excitement of Christmas, I did not get to reading this article until to-night and it impressed me so much that I could not resist the temptation of telling you about it.
Your subject, of course, would be very interesting as we all know Mr. Pote so well. But it required your refreshing style of writing to make it a real treat. Such remarks "Some think no person is properly buried unless Messrs. Sansoucy and Pote have sung Haude's "Crucifix" over the body" etc. were so characteristic that I could almost see your mischievous smile.

We all enjoyed this article immensely and hope to have the pleasure of reading more of your writings soon.

May I add my best wishes for a most Happy and Prosperous new year.

Sincerely,
Vicile E. Pelletier
