NOTICE TO STUDENTS

The Committee on Academic Standing will meet at 1:00 P.M., Saturday, January 28. Following this meeting an attempt will be made to notify all who are dismissed or suspended. Any student who feels uncertain about his academic status is advised to leave an appropriate telephone number in the Associate Dean's office.

Associate Dean Whiting and Dr. Dissell, Director of Student Affairs, will be available in their offices during the period from January 16 to January 28, and will be happy to talk with any student who feels he has academic or other problems.

FINANCIAL AID NEWS

Anyone wishing financial aid assistance for the next school year (1967-68) should pick up an application now as they must be returned to the Financial Aid Office in 122 Payson Smith Hall before January 30, 1967. This includes aid in the form of scholarships, loans, and work-study employment.

Students are reminded that they must file a new application each year in order to be considered for financial assistance. Check the bulletin board in the lobby of Payson Smith Hall regularly.

Two-year Business students are reminded to return their personal resume sheets to Mr. Freise as soon as possible.

LANGUAGE LAB ASSISTANT NEEDED

There is an opening for a student assistant in the language Laboratory starting the second semester of this year. The student must be one who has an interest in one or more foreign languages, and he (or she) must be free to work in the Lab. during the periods indicated:
Tuesday 9:00
Wednesday 9:00 and 11:00
Thursday 9:00, 10:00, 11:00
See Mr. Fred Freise in Payson Smith Hall for further information.

POLICY ON OVERDUE BOOKS AND FINES

All books borrowed from the Portland Campus Library should be returned on or before the due date.

Effective January 30, 1967, procedure on overdue books will be as follows:

One week after due date: an overdue notice will be sent.

Two weeks after due date: a bill will be sent which will include the cost of the book(s), a $2.00 minimum handling charge, plus the amount of the fine accrued.

One month after due date: if the book has not been returned, the bill, plus any additional fine accrued, will be forwarded to the Treasurer's Office at Orono for processing.

NOTE: If the book is returned prior to the expiration of the month (i.e., before the bill is forwarded to the Treasurer's Office), the bill will be reduced by the cost of the book.

If the book is returned after the month's waiting period, the total bill will be reduced by half.

It is important to note that the University of Maine does not issue grades or transcripts to students who have outstanding University financial obligations.
