Miss Charlotte Michaud

Lewiston, Maine.

Dear Miss Michaud:

Thank you so much for sending me the papers with your articles in them. I think you have done the job excellently though I believe you have been a great deal more humble than you needed to be.

Such an approach, I believe, will do a great deal to open the layman's eyes to the modern dance because you have deliberately put yourself on his level and have gone through with him the process of growing up, so to speak. I think it is splendid that you have been given so much space. That sort of thing will assuredly do much to build an audience for dancing "on the road".

Sincerely

John Martin
