The Public Information Office at UMP is pleased to be able to publish the "UMPus" for the benefit of summer school students. This paper, issued each Thursday morning, will include general announcements and a calendar of events for the ensuing week.

ALL IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS WILL BE PUBLISHED IN THE UMPus

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Both evening and day classes WILL be held on Monday, July 4.

The Student Union, located behind the University Store, is open daily from 9:00 to 4:00 and offers a good chance to relax at ping pong, pool or cards.

NEW ADMINISTRATIVE POSITIONS

Frederick E. Freise assumes his new position as director of student aid and placement at UMP this Friday.

His duties, as director of student aid, will help provide sufficient financial help for those who qualify and need assistance through scholarships, loans, work-study, and student employment.

Mr. Freise's office will be located in the old library section of Payson Smith Hall.

Mrs. Rebecca C. Larsen will also begin her duties as UMP's first full-time registrar on July 1.

Her office will include taking custody of academic records, preparing class schedules, assigning classrooms, and disseminating grades. Permanent records will however continue to be kept at Orono, because of the present data processing system used.

CES TO HELP HEAD START MOTHERS

Mrs. Lucy Shieve, Mrs. Shirley Hobbs, and Mrs. Mary Donnini of the Cumberland County Cooperative Service will conduct an eight week course starting Thursday, June 30 for mothers of Head Start children.

The classes will be held on Tuesday mornings at North School and at Jack Jr. High School on Thursday afternoon.

In addition to a discussion on more economic food buying, mothers will be able to talk about their individual problems. The CES will also lecture on how to help these mothers take advantage of surplus commodities.

GRADUATING??

Any student who thinks he is eligible to graduate by August 19, whether or not he has been notified by the Registrar's Office in Orono, should contact Dean Whiting's office immediately to arrange for particulars.

FACULTY REVIEW

Students must look at the bulletin board in Payson Smith Hall at the reviews from the Sunday Telegram by Samuel Bromfield, UMP associate professor of sociology, and the article on the poet James E. Lewisohn, member of UMP's faculty of English.

Bromfield's review of Susan Sontag's "Against Interpretation" is witty and highly perceptive. To say that he writes extremely well is an understatement. He displays a trenchant sense of humor that is very often lacking in erudite reviews. His facility in using language is best tested by the many catchy phrases throughout the article. Mr. Bromfield has a definite writing style.

The Evening Express caught an excellent image of James Lewisohn's dynamic personality. Inasmuch as the article is self-explanatory and therefore difficult to add to, it is refreshing to find a teacher who believes in a reciprocal exchange of ideas with his students, and who finds teaching a joy, an adventure, and even a dedicated religion.

*Any news or announcements should be brought to the attention of George Chapell in the Public Information Office in Room 108 Payson Smith Hall, "ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS WE'LL PRINT"

Remember all classes WILL be held on Monday, July 4.
