in her honor.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bouvier of Skowhegan, is a graduate of Edward Little high school in 1932, and is engaged in the insurance business in Auburn.

BISSON-THIELE

The marriage of Theodore Bisson and Miss Gertrude Thiele, both of 47 Pierce street, Lewiston, took place Saturday morning at the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception, St. Patrick's parish, with Rev. W. A. Jordan officiating. Attendants were Miss Regina Bisson and Patrick, sister and brother of the bridegroom.

The bride is a former resident of Rock Island, Ill., where she was graduated from the Villa de Chantal Academy. She is also a graduate of the College of St. Theresa at Winona, Minn., and for the past five years has been employed as assistant to a pediatrician. The bridegroom is a chef at the Court Square restaurant in Auburn, where he has been employed for the past ten years.

Mr. and Mrs. Bisson will reside at 192 Middle street, Lewiston.

GAGNE-FOURNIER

The marriage of Albert Gagne and Rose Alma Fournier, both of Lewiston, was solemnized Saturday morning at St. Mary's church, Rev. Fr. Palardy officiating and using the double ring service. Attendants were Miss Germaine Fournier, Miss Maria Forgues, Alfred Gagne and Joseph Valliere. Miss Ida Vaillancourt was at the organ and wedding music also included violin selections by Bertrand Houle.

The bride was gowned in white satin with tulle veil and carried a bouquet of white roses, while Miss Rose Fournier wore yellow crepe with a green jacket and Miss Forgues' gown was of blue crepe, both carrying roses in harmonizing shades. The little flower girl, Irene Carville, wore a yellow taffeta
