April 9, 1948

Mayor Louis P. Gagne
City Hall
Lewiston
Maine

Dear Mayor:

Thank you very much for your prompt reply to my letter concerning traffic lights at Cedar and Lincoln and Oxford and Cedar streets.

I'm pleased to know that you are already aware of the situation, and I can only hope that the proper authorities can respond with half the efficiency and consideration which you give to your job and to the city.

Thank you again, Mayor Gagne, for your fine spirit of cooperation.

Cordially,
