STEIN WEEK WRAPUP
After two weeks of vacation, the overall impressions of Stein Week have had plenty of time to be formulated and to jell. Those who attended Hedda Gabler, and we hear it was a SR/1 show, were very enthusiastic about the skill and talent shown in the performance. The Winter Olympics was highlighted by Chris Carland's stirring victory in the snowshoe race. Feta Kovacs provided after-dinner entertainment at the spaghetti supper, and was the hit of the evening.

Our Japanese playboy gave all those present at the Christmas party a sneak preview of the January playmate of the month.

At the UMF vs Bentley game (UMF 99 Bentley 83), the Bentley cheering section (2 girls with cowbells and noisemakers) stole the show.

The semi-formal, despite all dire predictions to the contrary, was a great success and provided a fitting end to a well-planned and well-enjoyed week.

WHAT PEOPLE DID ON VACATION
Bill Berry and Harley Hasey spent two weeks in Florida and the Bahamas - too many people went skiing to mention all the names, but a few of them are: Specs Eaton, Bobby Small, Mary Bouchard, Chick Coleman, Ellen Conant, Heather MacLean, Chris Carland, etc.

Miss Duval and her silence sign (to no avail) - one thing they didn't do was study - no exam schedule. We've finally got them, but it seems that the powers that be could fire up their computers a little sooner.

Everyone stood in line for Thunderball - had a generally friendly time, as the following will well illustrate:

Engaged:
John Roderick '68
Carol McCormick
Jano Budd
Dick Hay, Burdette College '62
Anita Naso '66
Greg Smith '66
Mary Donahue '66
Frank Blanchard '65

Married:
Scott Cummings '66
Michelle Watson '65

THE SPORTS SCENE
By Chris Carland

On December 18, (the day after the Christmas Party), the UIV:P Basketeers traveled to Waltham, Massachusetts to play Bentley College. UIV:P lost 84-97. Moulton, Weatherbie, and Francoeur all helped in the losing cause with 17, 15, and 15 points respectively. The 10 bad passes to Bentley's 2 must have been one of the deciding factors in this game.

Three days after this game UIV:P played Bentley again; this time, however, UIV:P won 99-83. Three of the Frosh on the team seemed to help wrap things up neatly. Roland Gagne ended up with 29 points for the night. Gagne hit a pretty impressive 17 out of 18 shots at the foul line. Coyne with 15 points and O'Connell with 11 points also helped out in the scoring.

Individual Totals After First 7 Games

- Moulton - high scorer, 114 pts.
- Moulton - most def. rebounds, 54
- Moulton - highest ave. pts. per game, 16.3
- Gagne - highest foul shot pct., 83.8% (31 out of 37).
- Wolford - highest shooting pct. 60% (15 out of 25).
- Francoeur - most off. rebounds, 35.
- O'Connell - most recoveries, 28.
- O'Connell - most assists, 21.

Team Totals

- UIV:P - total pts. 606, average pts. per game 86.6
- Opponents - total pts, 567, average pts. per game 81.0

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To The Editor:

Traditionally the Owls and Eagles have decorated the building for Christmas season. However, this year some do-gooder decided to call Orono and check to see if it was O.K. to decorate buildings on Portland campus. Answer: It is a university policy that the buildings are not decorated. Consequently, there were no sleigh, reindeer, or lights on IBH. There was no Christmas tree in the lobby of IBH. There was no Maine "X" and lights decorating the columns of Payson Smith Hall. The only outside decorations were a few paltry lights on the Student Union which were off two out of the five days preceding vacation.

Students home from Orono reported that the whole campus was ablaze with lights and decorations. In the Maine Campus, Dec. 16 in "Everybody's doin' it," Many students have decorated for the holidays - special mention must be made of the girls in Hancock, who have really done a fantastic job of decorating their doors."

What about that university policy? A few indignant Eagles.

Prayers That May Be Answered:

1. that someone will cut the red tape that arises everytime you want to see someone in the administration, get some information, or have a meeting, dance, etc.
2. that the powers that be will try to get exam schedules out within four weeks of exams.
3. that some kind soul will spring from the dust to help us with money for student facilities.
4. that whoever is sitting on the long-awaited (that's the first understatement of the year.) student center report will get off it and move it onto the next laggard.
5. that someone will find a bag of rock salt to throw on the ice that smothers all our paths either before someone breaks their leg or before the winter is over.
6. that the bookstore will get settled and keep lowering its prices.
7. that something will be done about the dance rules and the mud in the parking lot.
