Dear Uncle Lou,

Thanks for your letter of the 17th; from what everybody writes it seems as though Juj's mail would reach me sooner if it went to the states and were sent back out! I am glad that we are all agreed on the proper pronoun for use in discussion of Menikoe - and Menikoe alone, in view of the reservation which you make. Now all I have to do is find a girl named Menikoe.

Nothing changes on Santo - the job here is pretty close to done but I am still in the dark as to the place and/or date of my next move. Rumor has me going to New Caledonia to a depot job - off hand, that would sound like another deal such as this one. I'll have to wait and see - I just hope I get in with a good group of Officers and men; any way you look at it, that is the most important thing. Things are quiet - the boys took me to the cleaners early in the month and I have had to cut out my poker sessions of late! And there are so few of us left that it is hard to scrape up a bridge game or a volleyball game. With all the boredom of the place, I know that there are a million places where I might be stuck which are worse, and that always tempers my desire for a change.

I hope that something favorable comes of your personal project; keep me posted on it. I have been in touch with school and my plans for the happy day of discharge are still up in the air - whether I go directly into law school or finish up my AB work will depend on what time of the year I am released and a number of other factors. It is a pleasant thing to think about. I only need a couple of credits for the degree.

OK for now, Uncle Lou, thanks for writing - keep well and happy -

Love,
