Dear Sir,
I have the pleasure to inform you that the first of the four volumes of the "History of the County of York" has been published and is now on sale at the price of $12.50 per volume.
The second volume is also in the press and will be published in the near future. The third and fourth volumes are also in the press and will be published in the near future. The total cost of the four volumes is $50.00.
I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. H. [Name]

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a ledger or account book. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is oriented vertically. It appears to be a list of entries, possibly related to a business or financial record, with some numbers and names visible. The script is dense and difficult to decipher fully, but some words like "Kauf" (buy) and "Kasse" (cash) are discernible. The entries are separated by horizontal lines, suggesting a structured list or table.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a mix of English and another language, possibly German or Dutch. The text is written on lined paper and includes phrases such as "I have", "the", "of", "and", "in", "at", "on", "from", "to", "by", "with", "without", "under", "above", "below", "between", "among", "against", "towards", "from", "to", "by", "with", "without", "under", "above", "below", "between", "among", "against", "towards".

Handwritten text, possibly a date or a reference number, including the number "248".

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or a list, written on aged, yellowed paper. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be repeated or corrected. The script is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and the age of the document. The text appears to be a list of names or places, possibly related to a historical record or a personal account. The words are written in a fluid, connected manner, with some variations in ink color and line thickness. The overall appearance is that of a handwritten manuscript from the 18th or 19th century.

 on both sides. Left one holds the veil, as shown in fig. 1. Or, like fig. 2, both bows hold the veil. Gathering at the top make it large enough to come wide a part. Hook & like dots holds

both together.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a ledger or account book. The text is written in a language that appears to be a mix of English and a local dialect, possibly from the Pacific Northwest. The entries are organized into columns, with some lines crossed out. The text is written on aged, slightly stained paper.

21 April

Dear Sir,
I have the pleasure to inform you that the first of the four volumes of the "History of the County of York" has been published and is now available for sale. The price of the volume is $12.50. The second volume is also in the press and will be published in the near future.
The third and fourth volumes are also in the press and will be published in the near future.
I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. H. [Name]

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a ledger or account book. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is oriented vertically. It appears to be a list of entries, possibly related to a business or financial record, with some numbers and names visible. The script is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the age of the document.

Handwritten text in a script, likely Indic, covering the main body of the page. The text is written in a cursive style and appears to be a continuous narrative or record.

~~There are~~ 2 canals, the first runs from the river to the mill, the second from the mill to the river, and the third from the river to the river.

The first canal is 1000 feet long, the second is 500 feet long, and the third is 200 feet long.

 on both sides. Left one holds the veil, as shown in fig. 1. Or, like fig. 2, both bows hold the veil. Gathering at the top make it large enough to come wide a part. Hook-like shape of like dots holds

both together.
